Fuel oil tax collections in June were $1,109,305.55, about $40,000 under the revenues for May. It was announced Friday by W. B. Harrison, comptroller general.

The tax on gasoline brought $1,004,581.24 and that on kerosene, $114,724.31. In May $1,149,873.10 was collected, $1,123,123.88 from gasoline taxes and $126,749.22 from kerosene. Sales tax collections for the second quarter of the year. Friday totaled $71,622.38, with the close of the month, the final date for payment, still several days off. R. C. Norman, state tax commissioner, through whose office the sales tax is paid, expects to receive several thousand dollars daily until the first of next month, when penalties for non-payment will be enforced.

Appetizing Suggestions For Hot Weather Service

BY JESSIE MARIE DEBOTH.

Plate suppers are deservedly popular in summer, whether applied to picnic parties, porch service or dining room meals. They are appetizing to look upon, easy to arrange and cut down table space as well as dish washing. Unless compartment plates are used, care must be taken that foods do not mingle. Salads should not be wet enough to spread and are best served in lettuce cups or on shredded lettuce. Spiced fruits and tart sauces as accompaniments are easier to manage if placed in the handy little bake cups. If you have never used these, you have no idea how convenient they are for other purposes, than originally intended. Small portions of left over foods to be used at the next meal can be placed in these containers and tucked in a small place in the refrigerator or laid on top of other things.

In preparing garnishes for special occasions, if each variety be arranged ahead of time in the cups, they are easily assembled with nothing to wash afterward. In stretching small portions for home service the supply is sure to go around when distributed individually. We use these cups, too, for frozen novelties, such as horseradish cream, cheese molds for salads, also chilled appetizers.

Perhaps there is chicken or veal left from Sunday's dinner, yet not quite enough to serve amply. We can add to this some of the numerous varieties of summer sausage, a little cooked ham or corned beef from a nearby shop, or we may substitute hard cooked eggs, plain or stuffed. Thick salad dressing over plain halves, helps out.

If you choose ham, serve some fresh apple sauce in the fluted cups, or a drained slice of pineapple on each plate. Choice canned apricots, excellent with chicken or ham. Chilled asparagus, or mounds of green or lima beans, with French dressing serve as both vegetable and salad and crisp potato chips are always acceptable.

With cold lamb we like currant or mint jelly and chilled tomatoes in French dressing with a dash of curry powder and a suspicion of garlic.

If you've never eaten cold carrots you will find them excellent, just as we did until we tried them. They are good with a little thick cream, some salt and plenty of pepper, or with plain French dressing and a sprinkle of minced parsley. We get a pleasing yellow contrast also with orange, unpeeled, thickly sliced and then halved. If you have guava jelly you may slice that too and put a section on each piece of orange.

Potato salad enlivened with the seeds from nasturtiums is fine with any cold meat, and most people like fresh cottage cheese, mixed with chopped spoon or sprouts, so that the bread is pickled walnuts or minced chutney.

In the dressing for lettuce hearts is fine with cold beef, and so is Roquefort dressing with a bit of garlic. Cabbage salad topped with grated raw carrots, is colorful and piquant. Lengthwise quarters of celery-cabbage make a good relish covered with thick sour cream dressing and brightened with grated raw beets. Cooked beets, fresh or canned, plain or pickled, offer various forms of attractive service. They may be stamped in different shapes with vegetable cutters, in fancy slices with fluted halves, scooped out with ball cutters, or chopped fine and molded in small cups.

Serve spiced prunes with veal loaf, pickled pears with tongue, spicy watermelon chunks with chicken and tasty dills with ham. Deviled eggs on thick slices of tomato increase food value and extend meat service. Sliced eggs satisfy when coated with tartare sauce or Russian dressing.

Sardines, tuna or mackerel make agreeable fish service, with wedges of lemon and savory combination vegetable salad. Be ready for emergencies, remembering that a lemon in the ice box is worth three at the store. Parsley is cheap, keeps well in the salad container and helps a lot in garnishes. For a gay tomato cocktail, dip the edge of the glass in slightly beaten egg white, then in finely minced parsley before pouring in the cold flavorless tomato juice. For very special service make tomato jelly in ring molds, or a shallow sheet stamped out with a doughnut cutter, or in large rings with center removed. Heap with diced sweetbreads or cut shrimp, cover with Russian or tartare dressing and garnish with sprigs of cream and celery tips. Serve with crisp bread sticks or snappy cheese wafers.

Blueberry bread pudding is a seasonal dessert which has been given here before, but it is so satisfying and simple it seems worth repeating. Cook the berries with sugar, a dash of salt and little water until soft but not broken. Have strips of buttered bread in readiness, with a layer on the bottom of a deep container—glass, enamel or aluminum rather than tin. Pour hot fruit over the bread then cover with more bread and fruit until all are used, packing down with a spoon or spatula, so that the bread is saturated, the top layer being fruit.

MAYOR SIGNS PAPER ON MEMORIAL BODY

Deferred Enforcement of Ice Scales Law Also Approved.

Mayor I. N. Ragsdale Friday approved a resolution authorizing him to name a special committee of citizens and council members to negotiate with members of the Venable family for a deed to that portion of Stone Mountain needed to complete the gigantic memorial to heroes of the Confederacy.

The mayor will not name the committee until he has completed conferences with Mayor-elect James L. Key. Councilman Wiley L. Moore, author of the resolution which the mayor signed Friday, and others interested in the move to resume work on the monument.

During the past few days several persons interested in the plan have interviewed the mayor, but he has not yet held conference with several with whom he wishes to confer before making the committee assignments.

G. F. Willis, president of the Stone

Mountain Monumental Association, and John Ashley Jones, commander-in-chief of the Sons of Confederate Veterans, are among those who have visited the mayor about the proposal. Ice Scales Postponed.

Another important paper to which Mr. Ragsdale affixed his signature of approval Friday provided for suspension of an ordinance forcing all ice delivery trucks to be equipped with scales until August 4.

This will give the special committee of council, named to ascertain whether a combine to control the price of ice exists in Atlanta, an opportunity to complete its investigation. Councilman Ellis B. Barrett, chairman of the committee, stated Friday that he will call a meeting of the committee some time the earlier part of next week.

Enormous Crowds Attend A. & P. Warehouse Opening

Officials of Company Impressed With Interest Shown by Visitors.

Enormous crowds streamed through the new warehouse of the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company, located at 881 Fair street at the Atlanta and West Point railroad crossing, throughout the afternoon and evening Friday when the plant was formally opened.

Soon after 3 o'clock, the hour set for the opening, traffic became congested for blocks around, and automobiles were parked in every available space for a considerable distance in all directions from the new plant.

Officials of the company were greatly impressed with the interest the people showed in seeing the modern facilities utilized by an organization of this kind in distributing food products and groceries through its chain of stores.

On the main floor of the building a

DON'T SUFFER FROM CONSTIPATION

Prevent It This Pleasant, Healthful Way

Beware of the frequent headaches, the listless feeling, bad breath and sallow complexion.

If allowed to continue, constipation may get its grip on you and serious sickness can result.

The poisonous wastes in your system must be removed. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN—in either the improved krumbled cereal or the new Biscuit—is guaranteed to do this safely, completely. Just eat two tablespoons or one Biscuit daily—recurring cases, with every meal.

Doctors recommend Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. Because it is all bran it brings complete results. Far better than habit-forming drugs, pills that are often dangerous. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN (krumbled or Biscuit) not only prevents and relieves constipation pleasantly—it also supplies your blood with iron.

Ready-to-eat with milk or cream. Delicious with fruits or honey added. Use it in cooking. Sold by all grocers. Served by hotels, restaurants and dining-cars. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

number of food products manufacturers had booths from which samples were distributed. The booths were really decorated, and the great crowd that was assembled, gave the place the appearance of a carnival or festival.

Many interesting and attractive features caught the attention of the visitors on their tour of the plant, an exhibit of produce in one of the large cold storage rooms in the basement standing out prominently in this line.

Among other interesting features of the plant that seemed to attract more than ordinary attention were the bakery and cake making departments, on the second and third floors of the building, the bakery has a capacity of 2,500 loaves of bread an hour, and one big machine mixes 900 pounds of dough at a time.

The building is of concrete construction, modern and fire-proof in every respect. It has three stories and a basement, fronting 105 feet on Fair street and extending back 232 feet, which affords approximately 110,000 square feet of floor space.

The main offices are located on the second floor. Here, during the opening, were great quantities of flowers that had been sent for the occasion by friends of the organization with messages of congratulations.

R. D. MacIver, director of the company's operations in the southern division, with headquarters in Philadelphia, came to Atlanta for the opening of the warehouse, and was very favorably impressed with the entire plant.

B. F. Vinson, holding the office of vice president of the company, is in charge of the Atlanta territory, which includes all of Georgia and east Tennessee, stores in this area being supplied from the warehouse here.

Manufacturers who had booths at the warehouse for the opening included: Coca-Cola Company, Libby, McNeil & Libby, canned meats and pickles; Colgate-Palmolive-Peet Company, soap and toilet articles; Kraft-Phenix Cheese Company; Southern Cotton Oil Company, California Packing Corporation, Del Monte canned fruits and vegetables; Best Foods Company, mayonnaise products and Nucco oleomargarine; White Provision Company, Cornfield and Elberta packing house products.

GRAND JURORS DELAY COUNTY INVESTIGATION

Contradictory reports on the May-June term Fulton county grand jury's view of a probe of county affairs were on file Friday with the present body of inquisitors after the second committee from the retired jury called on the present investigators.

A. Steve Nance, Wade P. Harding, W. A. Jones, H. F. Hoyt and J. V. Hodges, of the May-June grand jury, Friday called on the new jury and informed the members that the past grand jury had voted down a proposal to recommend an investigation of county affairs, and that this action was taken because of the amount of detail yet remaining in the city hall probe.

Mr. Nance said that the second committee called at the grand jury room because the first committee, which was headed by H. S. Collingsworth, foreman, had been quoted as informing the new grand jury the immediate past jury's members had voted to urge the new body to take up the county investigation. The second committee reported that Solicitor-General John A. Boykin requested that the county investigation wait until the pressure of the present city probe was abated and he would have time to take up the new matters.

The previous grand jury agreed to hold up action on the proposed county probe on the solicitor-general's promise that it would be undertaken as soon as the city investigation is completed, the committee said Friday.

Slaton Addresses
Textile Workers

THOMASTON, Ga., July 25.—

The effect of governmental appropriations upon the welfare of people employed in textile industries of Georgia was emphasized here tonight by former Governor John M. Slaton, opposing Senator Harris for re-election, in an address in the Upson county courthouse.

"Upon county is a great agricultural county," said Mr. Slaton, "but also it is a great industrial county. Hundreds of your people are employed in textile mills. When they are working full-time every merchant and farmer shares in their prosperity, because they have money with which to buy the things they need. When they are employed part time, or laid off entirely, not only do they suffer, but the whole community suffers."

"Textile industries of this county, as of other Georgia counties, are operating under the most difficult conditions they have had to contend with in many years. I am advised that where a textile industry has continued to run full-time and laid off no employees, it has usually done so at a loss."

"Why this depression in a great industry that vitally affects the prosperity of the whole state of Georgia? The answer is not far to seek nor difficult to find. The answer lies in the fact that stupendous governmental expenditures have imposed upon this industry, and all other industries, such a burden of taxation that they find it almost impossible to operate at a profit. In short, their profits are eaten up in taxes as fast as they make profits."

"Senator Harris has served on the senate appropriations committee ten years. He has voted to appropriate literally hundreds of billions of dollars. The sum total staggers the mind of even a mathematician. He has never once, so far as the record shows, raised his voice in favor of economy."

Other points emphasized by Mr. Slaton were the League of Nations and the World Court, the high protective tariff that recently went into effect, the defeat of Judge Parker of North Carolina for the United States supreme court, etc.

Republicans Meet In Waycross Today

WAYCROSS, Ga., July 25.—(Special.)—Republican delegates from the 20 counties in the eleventh district will assemble in Waycross Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock for a congressional convention.

It is expected that full harmony will feature the convention. The Ware county republicans have nominated Walter A. Seaman for the state senate and W. W. Allen and Osa E. Davis for the state house of representatives.

DRYS TO CELEBRATE VICTORY WEDNESDAY

23d Anniversary of State Law To Be Commemorated.

Meeting here next Wednesday, July 20, friends of prohibition from all sections of Georgia will celebrate the twenty-third anniversary of the enactment of a state prohibition law. Governor Hardman is listed as one of the speakers in the program just made public by the Georgia Woman's Christian Temperance Union, sponsors of the celebration, and the 27 senators and 130 representatives of the 1907 legislature who voted for the prohibition bill have been invited to occupy seats of honor. The meeting will be held at the Grace Methodist church.

Besides Governor Hardman, Seaborn Wright, Hooper Alexander, W. A. Covington, Mrs. William J. Neel, Mrs. Mary Harris Armor and others prominent in Georgia's fight for prohibition will speak, and the old campaign songs will be sung. Included in the latter will be "Georgia's Going Dry" and "The Nation Has Gone Dry" and "The World is Going Dry." W. C. T. U. organizations, churches and other groups and individuals from every county, town and city have been invited to attend, the official announcement of the celebration said, and everybody is welcome. Leaders of the movement say "it is expected to be a great occasion and an incentive to move forward for prohibition observance and enforcement."

Mrs. Marvins Williams is state president of the W. C. T. U.

Colonial Telegraph Superintendent Dies

NEW YORK, July 25.—(AP)—Patrick Henry Burns, head of the Colonial Telegraph system and resident of Nassau, the Bahamas, died yesterday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Mary A. Smith, in Brooklyn. He was 60.

Mr. Burns had come to New York some days ago to visit his daughter and her husband, Dr. Christopher Smith, of 1530 East Twenty-seventh street, Brooklyn, and became ill with heart disease and a complication of ills to which he succumbed.

He is survived by two children. The body will be taken back to Nassau for interment, but funeral plans have not been completed.

NASSAU, Bahamas, July 25.—(AP)—Patrick Henry Burns, superintendent of Colonial Government Telegraphs, who died in a Brooklyn hospital yesterday, had been an employee of the Bahamas government since 1892. He established the cable line that for several years connected Nassau with the Florida mainland at Jupiter. His government services were recognized some time ago when King George of England vested him with the order of the British empire.

RECALLERS AND FOES MUST PAY HALL FEES

Council Auditorium Body
Bans Free Use for Meetings.

Proponents and opponents of the movement to recall a dozen city officials including Mayor I. N. Ragsdale must pay the regular $40 nightly rental charge for use of the city auditorium for mass meetings, it was decided Friday afternoon at a called meeting of the auditorium committee of council.

Parks Rusk, chairman of the recall committee, and A. H. Sears, president of the League of Justice, a secret fraternal organization, which is opposing the recall in its present form, applied for use of the building on two separate nights, and were granted permission with a proviso that the charge be paid in advance.

On the heels of a ruling of the committee Rusk, chairman of the recall committee, announced that he will engage the building for 8 o'clock next

Wednesday night to hold "an educational meeting."

Mr. Sears also stated that his group is working out plans for an early meeting.

"I do not blame the committee for its position, but feel that the amount asked will prevent the meeting which we planned to hold Saturday night," Mr. Rusk said.

Mr. Sears had asked for the auditorium for next Thursday night.

DAVIS OUSTER MOVE DISMISSED BY COURT

G. O. P. Factional Fight Is Halted by Action of Dove.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.
Injunction proceedings against Henry Davis, secretary of the Georgia republican patronage committee, have been dismissed, it was learned Friday from John B. Dove, representing the plaintiffs.

The motion was filed in Fulton superior court last week and asked an injunction to restrain Davis from collection of funds for the republican party in Georgia. The plaintiffs were listed as members of the J. W. Arnold faction of the Georgia republican party, and opponents of the Rose faction, of which Davis is a leader.

It was learned from Dove that he had the motion withdrawn last Tuesday. He took that action, he said, because the proceedings "would involve so many federal office holders."

Dove is a member of the state committee of the Arnold faction. The hearing originally was set for today and it was not generally known until Friday that the motion had been withdrawn. Mr. Arnold issued a statement from his home at Athens yesterday repudiating the case and declaring he had nothing to do with its filing.

He said if his name and the names of his executive committee were taken from the motion as plaintiffs he would take "the necessary action to remove them."

Davis is an appointee of the commission appointed by President Hoover on southern patronage affairs. The motion contended he was not connected with the recognized republican party in Georgia and therefore had no authority to collect funds in the name of the party.

The Arnold and Rose factions each contend it is "the republican party in Georgia" and "the separate organizations since a split in the ranks of Georgia republicanism at the state convention last April."

Dove said Friday that he had filed the suit "in good faith" and that he probably would reopen it at a later time when it will not involve so many office holders and candidates.

The Rose faction has no candidates in the field, but the Arnold faction has nominated M. O. Dunning, collector of customs at the port of Savannah, as candidate for United States senator.

HARRIS WILL LAUNCH CAMPAIGN AT DUBLIN

Reports were received in Atlanta Friday from Washington, bearing the information that United States Senator William J. Harris will open his campaign with an address at Dublin on Monday, that campaign headquarters will be opened at the Ansley hotel on the same day. Hon. Nathan L. Cuspepper, former member of the Georgia House of Representatives, will be in charge of the headquarters during the duration of the campaign.

It is understood that following his address at Dublin Senator Harris will return to Atlanta to spend the balance of the week in his headquarters familiarizing himself with the situation and laying plans for his campaign of reelection.

In opening his speaking campaign at Dublin, Senator Harris selected the home district of Congressman Larsen, with whom it will be recalled he engaged in controversy several months ago leading out of the visit to Georgia of Chairman Legge, of the federal farm board.

Senator Harris left Washington several days ago, but was delayed in reaching Georgia through the illness of his brother, Professor J. C. Harris, who will be operated upon Friday in a hospital at Charlotte, N. C.

Aged Princess Fights Effort To Halt Wedding

PARIS, July 25.—(AP)—The desire of 73-year-old Princess Amadee De Broglie to marry 42-year-old Don Luis De Bourbon, son of the Infanta Eulalia, of Spain, and cousin of King Alfonso, was the subject of pleading before the tribunal of the Seine today.

Henri Torres, specialist in defending communist agitators, appeared for the aristocratic princess. He pleaded for her to be granted the same right possessed by others, namely, to seek happiness wherever she sees it, no matter what her age.

Maitre Aubepin, head of the order of advocates of Paris, defended the suit of the princess' family, represented by her nephew, the Duke De Brissac. He pleaded that the princess was mentally unsound and asked the court to name a council of three doctors to examine her.

The very fact that the princess considered marriage with Don Luis, a discredited prince who was barred from France for misconduct, and who was a profligate, Aubepin argued, was enough to show she was unbalanced.

The decision of the court will be handed down tomorrow afternoon. A statement to the princess, made through her attorney in response to the charges of her family, created a considerable stir. It said: "I realize that many persons think my marriage with this much younger man ridiculous, but I want to spend a few happy years before I die."

Attorney Torres in the course of his argument asserted that the princess had known Don Luis for eighteen years.

Twelve years ago, when her husband died, he said, Paris society gossiped a great deal about the two, but the princess decided then that her duty was to devote herself to raising her two orphaned grandchildren properly.

He argued that Princess Amadee now feels justified in seeking to be happy in her own way during the last years of her life.

Don Luis' conduct was "regrettable," he admitted, but this constituted no legal reason for forbidding the marriage. He further contended that French law recognizes the right of ancestral relatives to act in such family matters but that it does not accord such authority to descendants.

It developed during the trial that the administrator appointed by the court after a family council held July 7 had recently seized the princess' jewels which were valued at $120,000. Many letters of friends as well as testimonials from alienists were introduced to prove that the princess was in excellent bodily and mental health.

Tariff Charges Called Groundless by Smoot

WASHINGTON, July 25.—(AP)—After an examination of foreign protests against the rates of the new tariff law, Senator Smoot says many of them are unjust and groundless.

In particular, Smoot, who was one of the authors of the bill, objected to the protests of France.

He said the United States buys $150,000,000 worth of French products and spends $300,000,000 in tourist money in France annually, while exports to that country amount to $150,000,000, leaving a balance of $200,000,000 in favor of France.

"It must always be borne in mind," he continued, "that France discriminates against American goods, not out of any malevolence but because the tariffs in France are on an entirely different basis than in the United States."

"We make our tariffs equal to everybody. The French government, however, has a maximum and minimum tariff within the boundaries of which they bargain with other countries for favored positions, the net result of which is that their discriminations are set up against American goods which have damaged American exports to France."

The result has been, he said, decreased stationary exports to France. If there is any complaint to be made, he added, it rests within the United States.

General J. W. Gulick To Visit City Today

Major General John W. Gulick, chief of coast artillery, who has just completed an inspection of coast artillery activities along the South Atlantic and Gulf coasts, will visit headquarters of the fourth corps area, and headquarters fourth coast artillery district here today.

At completion of this tour of inspection, which ends with the 61st coast artillery (antiaircraft) now temporarily located at Camp Knox (Louisville) General Gulick will have visited practically every coast artillery unit east of the Mississippi river during the present summer. Later he will go to Panama and the west coast to look over coast defenses. General Gulick is a native of North Carolina.

3 MISSOURI SLAYERS CLAIMED BY GALLOWES

Men Who Executed Kansas City Crime Hanged for Murder.

KANSAS CITY, July 25.—(AP)—Three bank robbers who sprayed bullets into a downtown district here two years ago, were hanged simultaneously today for the murder of James H. "Happy" Smith, victim of their fire. They were Tony "Lollypop" Mangiaracina, Carl Nasello, machine gunner for the gang, and John Messina, driver of the bandit car.

One of five buttons pressed by the five deputy sheriffs released the trap at 6:04 a. m., sending to their deaths three of the six bandits who planned and executed the robbery of the Home Trust Company June 14, 1933.

Mangiaracina and Nasello were pronounced dead at 6:21 and Messina two minutes later.

The bandits stood erect as the nooses were adjusted. They declared they had no statement to make, prior to their entry into the death chamber they reiterated declarations of innocence. Among the 200 witnesses to the execution was the father of Smith, who was a policeman.

The trust company, in the shopping district, was robbed while a rattling machine gun sprayed walls and ceiling, terrorizing employees.

Repulsed by fear gas, the sleeping victim poured shotgun slugs into the neck of "Happy" Smith, attracted by the uproar. Dying, he shot away the windshield of his assailant's car. It swerved into a traffic semaphore, tearing off a door.

The luck number was a clue which led to the speedy arrest of the trio hanged this morning.

The bandits struck four bystanders. Another died of his fall. Darrell Capshaw, traffic patrolman, was among the wounded.

Maurice Nagle, who rented his car to the bandits, and Tony Bonello, confessed member of the gang, are serving life terms in the Missouri penitentiary.

Bonello's young wife was slain in New York after his confession, because, police were told, she "knew too much."

Sam Stein, sought by police as the actual slayer of "Happy" Smith, and a mysterious figure known only as "The Cowboy" are at large.

Physicians Disagree On 'TB' Vaccination

On 'TB' Vaccination

PARIS, July 25.—(AP)—Several doctors, including one from the United States and one from Canada, expressed opposition to general use of the Calmette-Guérin tuberculosis vaccine during yesterday's session of the first International Microbiological Congress.

They disagreed regarding its safety.

with Dr. Albert Calmette, assistant director of the Pasteur Institute, who on Wednesday defended his discovery, maintaining the German experts had absolved the vaccine of responsibility for the deaths of three-score children in Lubeck during recent months.

Dr. S. A. Petroff, director of research of the Trudeau (N. Y.) sanatorium, said that "steam roller" methods had prevented him voicing an opinion earlier. He asserted that the Calmette vaccine called "bov" was capable of developing virulence.

His view was supported by Dr. E. A. Watson, of Ottawa, who affirmed that during five years of experiments 5 per cent of inoculated animals developed "extensive generalized tuberculosis and most of these died."

IN COUNTLESS HOUSEHOLDS...
Some one is Suffering in silence

-from troubles caused or aggravated by harsh toilet tissue

IT IS AMAZING—this statement of a prominent New York hospital surgeon... that between ten and twenty million people in the United States are suffering from rectal troubles.

And yet, not so surprising when you consider the grossly indifferent attitude of most people toward the quality of toilet tissue used in their homes.

Fortunately, however, housewives today can assure absolute protection by insisting upon the tissues physicians and hospitals have thoroughly approved—Scott's Tissue, Sani-Tissue and Waldorf.

These three health-protecting tissues are made from specially processed fibres—"thirsty fibres." Crumple a sheet. Feel its unusual softness... its linen-like texture. No sharp edges or tiny slivers to cause inflammation. Thirsty fibres are extremely absorbent—yet tough and strong. Without this absorbent quality thorough cleansing is impossible. Scott's Tissues are chemically pure—neither acid nor alkaline in reaction. Why take chances... when it costs no more to buy these fine quality toilet tissues.

NOTE: Scott's Tissue and Waldorf are the two largest selling brands in the world. Sani-Tissue is the new popular priced white toilet tissue embodying the famous thirsty fibre qualities they fit the built-in features

Senator Harris Reaches Atlanta This Morning

Candidate for Re-election
To Set Up Headquarters and Launch Brief Fight for Nomination.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—(Special.)—Senator William J. Harris is due in Atlanta tomorrow morning, prepared to start on a whirlwind campaign for the democratic senatorial nomination. He left this city Thursday, but expected to stay over in Charlotte, N. C., for a day, visiting his brother, Professor J. C. Harris. According to the senator's plans when he left here he will be met at the train by N. F. Culpepper, his campaign manager, and will at once establish headquarters at the Ansley hotel. On Monday he will open his speaking campaign at Dublin, going to Moultrie on Tuesday and Bainbridge on Wednesday. He has also accepted an invitation to speak before the students of Wesleyan College, Macon, on September 17. Just before leaving this city Senator Harris called on the members of the interstate commerce commission, whom he asked to investigate reports that the peach growers of Georgia were suffering at the hands of the railroads, due to the fact that refrigerated cars in many cases were at least 12 hours behind schedule and causing considerable losses as the result.

Evangelist Powers Re-enters Ministry

For the first time since his retirement from evangelism shortly after the Scopes evolution trial at Dayton, Tenn., where he was associated in service with William Jennings Bryan, Jack Montague Power, nationally-known evangelist, will re-enter the ministry Sunday night when he will occupy the pulpit at Grant Park Methodist church, preaching on the subject, "Chickens Come Home to Roost." It was announced Friday by the Rev. Tom Kendall, pastor. Special music will feature services.

BUICK LINE FOR 1931 TO BE SHOWN TODAY

New Models Are Powered
With Straight-Eight Motors.

The new 1931 Buick line powered with straight-eight valve-in-head motors will be exhibited to the public today. Offered in four new series, the 1931 Buick Eight holds many surprises for showroom visitors. In addition to its advanced straight-eight valve-in-head power plant, the new car also has a synchro-mesh transmission, new insulated body by Fisher, and many other important advances, which, according to E. T. Strong, president of the Buick Motor Company, make the new eight the outstanding car of the company's history. Many refinements have been incorporated in the beautiful new Fisher body, and changes in construction have been employed to strengthen it structurally and eliminate any possibility of noise or fumes from the engine. The driving compartment in all models has been completely insulated. No radical changes have been made in the general appearance of the new bodies, but a wealth of fine details and new appointments have been embodied to increase the luxurious riding comfort of the new Buick eight.

Among the engineering advancements on the new Buick eight, in addition to the synchro-mesh transmission, are an engine oil temperature regulator, dual carburetion, combined intake silencer and air cleaner, new crankcase ventilating system, improved steering gears, one-piece rear axle housing, new clutches and four-point rubber insulated engine mountings. The new line is offered in 30 models, divided into four different wheel-base lengths. The six models in the 8-50 series are carried on a 114-inch wheel base and powered with an eight-cylinder overhead-valve motor, which has a bore and stroke of 2 7/8x1 1/4 inches. This motor is rated at 76 1/2 horsepower and provides a speed of 75 miles per hour. In the 8-80 and 8-90 series five models are offered on a 118-inch wheel base. The motor used in this series has a bore and stroke of 3 1/8x1 3/8 inches, developing 90 horsepower and a speed of 80 miles per hour. In the 8-80 and 8-90 series a motor having a bore and stroke of 3 5/16x1 3/8 inches drives the car at a speed of 80 miles per hour with a 104 rated horsepower. Two models are presented in the 8-80 series on a 124-inch wheel base, and the 8-90 series on a 132-inch wheel base is composed of seven models. The new Buick eight produces a new sensation in driving; there is no apparent change in smoothness, noise or vibration from low to high speeds, and the car can be driven with great ease, comfort and safety. Silent operation, due to improvements made in the overhead valve mechanism, the use of the synchro-mesh transmission, and the insulation of the body, is one of the outstanding features of the new Buick eight.

Wasting Money Is Always Foolish---

More so now than ever when money seems to be a little more scarce than we have been accustomed to.

Wise spending for necessary things is always smart—more so now than ever before.

People are still going about the business of living, meeting their friends, enjoying their homes, getting married, and doing all the normal things we always have done.

Household things that wear out must still be replaced. We must still wear clothes. Automobiles will not run without gasoline and they have not stopped running. People should spend carefully, and are spending carefully, but they have not stopped earning and spending and living.

Household articles can be replaced now at lower prices than for quite a few years. These lower prices mean that you can buy just as many articles as you would have bought last year or the year before and they will simply cost you less than last year or the year before.

Prices are sufficiently lower so that they are in line with the restricted spending that is being practiced by most thrifty housewives.

Low prices are not going to last long, because depression and poor business never last long in the United States. It is, therefore, likely that before many more months have elapsed, prices will be higher rather than lower compared to the present purchasing power of your dollars.

All this makes it important that you read Davison-Paxon's advertising in Sunday's papers announcing the opening of their semi-annual sale of furniture and home furnishings. Because, instead of depriving yourself any longer of anything that you want, or need, hoping for lower prices later on, we believe it wise to buy these things now.

Manufacturers and retailers and you, the consumer, have passed through a period during which we have all probably been overcautious, and a little fearful of hard times that have not really materialized to the entire satisfaction of the pessimists.

We are now coming out of the fog and can see ahead the road that will slowly but surely lead us back to the prosperous condition to which we have become accustomed.

At the beginning of this road is our semi-annual sale of furniture and house furnishings which starts Monday and of which you may read details in tomorrow's newspapers.

2 OBSOLETE CRUISERS TO GO UNDER HAMMER

World War Convoy Ships
Will Pass to Highest Bidder.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—(P)—Two obsolete cruisers which conveyed American soldiers overseas and one of which prevented the wartime destruction of port facilities in Honolulu are to be sold to the highest bidder.

The navy announced today that bids will be received on August 7 for the historic cruisers, the Huntington, formerly the West Virginia, and the St. Louis.

Both vessels safely escorted merchantmen and troop transports through many miles of dangerous waters during the war, but the 10,500-ton St. Louis, which, with others of its type, is being replaced by more modern and faster cruisers of about the same size, figured in a more spectacular affair.

The German gunboat Geier was interned in Honolulu. The crew of the St. Louis saw smoke billowing from the hold of the gunboat and a boarding party from the cruiser found shrapnel fuses scattered about and a fire of oil-soaked waste and wood underneath a dry boiler.

Within a few minutes the boiler would have burst, exploding ammunition aboard and spreading fire, shells and splinters of metal about the harbor.

The crew of the St. Louis threw lines across the gunboat and warped her to a pier where chemicals extinguished the blaze after an all-day fight.

SIGN FAILS TO KEEP OFFICERS FROM CAR

KENOSHA, Wis., July 25.—(P)—The sign in the window of Frank Butters' automobile said: "Don't shoot—there's no liquor in this car."

But Butters was speeding so the police stopped him. Later they announced that one can place little dependence in signs, as they found the car loaded with 258 gallons of alcohol.

Mellon Backs Hoover On U. S. Expense Figure

WASHINGTON, July 25.—(P)—Secretary Mellon issued a statement today saying the statement of Representative Byrns of Tennessee, ranking democrat on the house appropriations committee, "confuses the matter of appropriations with actual expenditures and leaves an erroneous impression."

Byrns had accused the president of "juggling" figures to show smaller appropriations and expenditures than he said had been made.

"As a matter of fact," Mellon said, "the figures presented by the president to the press were furnished by the budget bureau and are the July 1 working figures of the treasury department."

As previously stated, including the estimated postal deficit, the total budget estimates of expenditures for the present fiscal year are $4,203,254,457, as compared with actual expenditures for the last fiscal year of $3,904,152,487, or an increase of $299,101,970, being an increase of 5 per cent. Naturally these figures do not include amounts appropriated for future years which will not be expended during the present fiscal year.

South Central States Grow More Rapidly

WASHINGTON, July 25.—(P)—The east south-central geographical group composed of Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama and Mississippi, experienced a growth in population for the last ten years twice as large numerically as that of the previous decade.

These four states now have a combined population of 9,888,311 as compared with 8,593,307 in 1920, an increase of 955,004, or 11.2 per cent over 1920. The increase in the previous ten years was 483,406 or 5.7 per cent. The group now has 1,612,000 more population than New England's 8,276,755. New England increased 11.9 per cent during the ten years.

The population of the states and the percentage of increase for the two decades were:

State	Population	Inc.	Per Cent
Kentucky	2,622,809	8.5	5.3
Tennessee	2,609,637	11.1	7.0
Alabama	2,444,477	12.2	9.8
Mississippi	2,011,383	12.3	6.4

(x)—Indicates decrease.

HOOPER WILL STUDY NEEDS OF DISTRICT

President Plans Work for Week-End at Camp.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—(P)—Busy with the nation's affairs for months, President Hoover over the weekend plans to turn his thoughts nearer home and give time to a study of conditions and needs in the District of Columbia.

The three district commissioners and Colonel U. S. Grant III, were on his guest list for the trip, arranged today, to his mountain camp in Virginia.

Thirteen others were invited to accompany the chief executive and Mrs. Hoover. They had everything in readiness to leave the White House after lunch and did not intend to return until Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Lawrence and Mr. and Mrs. Mark Sullivan, both of Washington; Howard Heinz, of Pittsburgh; A. W. Shaw, of Chicago; Lawrence Richey, Dr. Joel T. Boone, and Mrs. Stark McMillin, of Palo Alto, Cal., a friend of Mrs. Hoover.

Before leaving Mr. Hoover had as luncheon guests the planning committee of the child welfare commission, headed by Secretary Wilbur.

The guest list for the outing included: Senator Baird, of New Jersey; and Mrs. Baird, who returned this week from a honeymoon abroad; Dr. Luther Reichelderfer, district commissioner; and Mrs. Reichelderfer; Major General H. B. Crosby, a commissioner; and Mrs. Crosby; Major Joseph C. Gotschall, the third commander of the National Guard; and Mrs. Gotschall; and Mrs. David Lawrence and Mr. and Mrs. Mark Sullivan, both of Washington; Howard Heinz, of Pittsburgh; A. W. Shaw, of Chicago; Lawrence Richey, Dr. Joel T. Boone and Mrs. Stark McMillin, of Palo Alto, Cal., a friend of Mrs. Hoover.

Girl Smuggling Middles Dismissal is Ordered

WASHINGTON, July 25.—(P)—Orders were forwarded tonight for the dismissal from Annapolis of two midshipmen girls who were found smuggling liquor into the mess hall of the Naval Academy.

The youths were L. I. Mritt, of Quincy, Mass., and Miller S. Burgin, of San Antonio, Texas, the latter the son of Rev. S. H. C. Burgin, a presiding elder of the Methodist Episcopal church, south, now stationed at Jacksonville, Fla.

A recommendation for their dismissal was transmitted to the naval department by Rear Admiral S. S. Robinson, superintendent of the academy after the details of the incident had been learned by academy officials. It was approved by Secretary Adams and President Hoover, whereupon the bureau of navigation instructed that they be dismissed.

PRINCE'S AIRPLANE FORCED DOWN BY STORM

BIRMINGHAM, Eng., July 25.—(P)—The Prince of Wales, flying with a pilot, from London to Carnarvon, was forced down at the airfield here this forenoon by a sudden storm. Landing was effected safely and the British heir prepared to return to London.

The prince, who started to fly this morning to the Royal Welsh agricultural show found weather conditions becoming increasingly dangerous as he reached a point near this city and decided to come down.

This is the second time within three days that the Prince of Wales has been forced to abandon his air journey to Carnarvon by adverse weather conditions. It was announced that he would fly back to London late today if the weather permitted.

Florida Defines Bank's Liability Clearing Checks

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., July 25.—(P)—The state supreme court today held in effect that the Bank of Dannelon had done all that it could to prevent F. P. Marlow, of that city, from losing $24,400 through the failure of the Citizens bank of Dannelon.

The supreme court reversed the decision of the lower court in Marion county which had favored Marlow in his suit against the Bank of Dannelon for a $1,400 savings deposit, interest on the money and $3,000 damages.

The story of the transaction was outlined in the supreme court's decision on March 19, 1927, Marlow opened a savings account in the Bank of Dannelon, which had been organized for $1,400 on the Citizens Bank of Dannelon. He told Bank of Dannelon officials that he believed the Citizens bank was about to fail and asked them to cash the check and transfer his account quickly so as to save him the loss of the $1,400.

Bank of Dannelon officials claimed that they agreed to this and presented Marlow's check to the Citizens bank but were told that the latter institution was not cashing checks on hand to honor the check. Citizens bank officials, it was claimed, said that their institution had money in the Bank of Dannelon and asked Marlow to clear the check through the Jacksonville bank. The check was sent to Jacksonville and returned with a notice that the Citizens bank did not have sufficient funds at Jacksonville to cover the check.

Bank of Dannelon officials further claimed that while they were trying to cash Marlow's check, the Citizens bank of Dannelon failed. The uncashed check was charged against Marlow's account at the Bank of Dannelon.

Marlow claimed that on July 1, after having given sixty days notice, he presented his check to the Bank of Dannelon and asked to withdraw his savings account and that his request was refused. His suit for the money, for interest at a legal rate and for the $3,000 damages followed.

Indianan Fills Many Positions In Fine Style

SCHREVEVILLE, Ind., July 25.—(P)—This town's got a police chief, motorcycle officer, fire department chief, fire department truck chauffeur and a president of the board of safety—and Peter Reader is all of them.

Yesterday was pretty busy. Someone called and Reader answered the phone.

"I want the chief of police," said the voice.

"You got him," said Reader.

"Please send a motorcycle officer after a lit-and-run driver," continued the voice, excitedly, giving details.

"And I want the fire department to come and save my automobile. It's burning up. And while I'm talking I want to complain about the village streets. They're full of holes and it's a wonder someone doesn't get hurt."

"The fire appears to be the most pressing matter," said Chief Reader, and in a minute he was seated at the fire truck wheel and in time at all had put out the fire with chemicals.

He returned to the city hall, put the truck away and mounted his motorcycle. After a 10-mile chase he captured the lit-and-run driver and arrested him. Then he went forth and as street commissioner and repaired the holes in the highways.

Last night he made a report on the work to the town board, in his capacity of president of the board of safety.

Corn Sugar Labeling Of Products Attacked

WASHINGTON, July 25.—(P)—The departmental policy requiring the labeling of prepared food products to show the presence of corn sugar was proposed and attacked today before Secretary Hyde of the department of agriculture.

Opponents contended that revision would legalize deception of the public and nullify the pure food and drugs act.

Proponents urged the change on the ground it would increase the consumption of cash corn, stimulate the market and aid the farmer.

Mrs. Harvey W. Wiley, widow of the first administrator of the pure food act, and Representative Menges, Republican, Pennsylvania, led the group defending the present policy.

H. G. Holt, of the Corn Products Refining Company, and W. R. Scott, of the Kansas City board of trade, sought the change. Dr. W. M. Marriott, director of the Children's hospital, St. Louis, contended that corn sugar was harmless and wholesome and had saved the lives of infants where other food had failed.

Man Bequeaths Woman Funds Lost by Advice

TAMPA, Fla., July 25.—(P)—Mrs. Johnna Wilson deposited her lifetime savings in the Citizens Bank & Trust Company here some time before it closed a year ago on the advice of August Van Eepoel, vice president of the Celo Company of America, and pioneer south Florida dairy developer.

Mr. Van Eepoel was killed in a train wreck in Georgia July 7 and his will filed for probate here today contained a bequest of $5,000 to Mrs. Wilson to repay her loss.

A codicil in the will drawn less than four months after the bank closing, said: "The residue of the gift is as follows: Her lifetime savings, accumulated dollar by dollar, were put, upon my advice, in the bankrupt Citizens Bank & Trust Company of Tampa. This way my mind was free of relief and I won't worry any more on that particular."

The remainder of the estate, valued at about $300,000, was left to relatives and friends. The original will was made in March, 1924.

NASHVILLE, TEXAS CITY WIN NEGRO PRIZE TESTS

TUSKEGEE INSTITUTE, Ala., July 25.—(P)—Nashville, Tenn., and Wichita Falls, Texas, will be awarded prizes as winners of the National Negro Health Week contest. Dr. Robert R. Moton, principal of Tuskegee institute, announced today. The prize for the best rural health work among negroes was won by Kent county, Maryland.

Nashville's award was for cities with population of more than 100,000 and Wichita Falls for smaller cities. Nashville also won the extra prize for the best report of the winners.

The prizes, given by the National Clean-up and Paint-up Bureau of New York City, will be presented during the annual convention of the National Negro Business League in Detroit, August 20, 21 and 22.

NEW WITNESS SAYS MOONEY INNOCENT

Cleveland Man Declares He Saw Others Plant Bomb.

CLEVELAND, July 25.—(P)—A new witness who said he was willing to testify that Thomas Mooney and Warren K. Billings are innocent of the Preparedness Day bombing that cost ten lives in San Francisco, 14 years ago, told his version here today of the explosion.

Adam Krumesc, caretaker at the home of a Cleveland multimillionaire, said he believed the men were to blame for the blast, for which Mooney and Billings are serving life sentences in a California prison.

Krumesc, a Hungarian, said he was a 22-year-old roustabout in San Francisco at the time of the explosion. He was sitting on a fruit box on the sidewalk in direct view of the blast when it occurred, he said.

"I noticed three men who appeared to be Mexicans loitering on the opposite side of the street, etc."

Almost simultaneously with their departure I noticed a suitcase standing on the curb where they had been loitering. A terrific explosion occurred and debris and parts of bodies flying through the air."

Atlanta Youths Seek Motor Boat Record at Park

With 240 hours, a new mark for outdoor motors, as their first goal and all eyes turned to the lake today for a final reward, two Atlanta youths, Joe Logan and J. J. Hardegree, set sail from the motorboat docks at Lakewood park at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon.

The start was set for 3 o'clock but installation of a radio receiving set and a few minor adjustments to the boat and motor delayed the official start until 4 o'clock.

It is the first time in the history of Atlanta that such a feat has been attempted and more than 100 persons were present when the official starting signal was given.

After a few spins around the quarter-mile lake, Friday afternoon, the endurance seekers reported "all well." They settled themselves for a long grind on the lake and were heard to say: "We'll be here when the South-east Fair opens its gates in October."

The wave to victory at Lakewood will be no easy task. Refueling appears to be the hardest obstacle to overcome. The small gasoline tank holds only 13 pints of fuel, making it necessary to refill once every 15 to 20 minutes.

Four five-gallon containers will be carried in the boat from which to refill the small tank on the motor. They will be replaced as often as needed.

Dentists Maintain Right To Liquors

DENVER, Colo., July 25.—(P)—Whisky and brandy were approved as necessary medicinal agents in the practice of dentistry by the American Dental Association on the eve of the closing of its 72d annual convention today.

Approximately 85 per cent of the house of delegates voted for the resolution.

Passage of the resolution culminated years of effort within the organization by those who held they were being discriminated against. They pointed to the privilege of medical practitioners, who, since the enactment of the prohibition law, have been allowed regular stipends from the federal government.

The resolution makes no mention of prescriptions for liquor such as are permitted medical doctors. It requests, however, the right for dentists to give whisky and brandy to patients.

The convention closed today with the meetings of various scientific sections featuring 12 district clinics. Colonel Robert Todd Oliver, of Philadelphia, automatically assumed the office of president. He was chosen president-elect at the last annual convention.

Snake Bite Fails To Deter Tree-Sitter

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., July 25.—(P)—Jasper Stewart, a Jacksonville youngster, who is a member of the vast, tree-sitting army, remained on his perch tonight, despite that he was bitten by a snake.

Jasper yelled and James Dowling, half of his ground crew, came up and killed the snake. A physician was called but discovered the snake was of a non-poisonous variety and assured the boy there was no danger. The doctor told Stewart he might go on sitting if he wanted to—and Stewart said he did. He has been up since Friday night.

Bobby Bush, 10-year-old aspirant for endurance honors, climbed out of his tree today after being up 212 hours.

'Big Bill's' Kinsman By Law Takes Life

CHICAGO, July 25.—(P)—William Burkhardt, 35, former state and city official and brother-in-law of Mayor William Hale Thompson, was found dead in his apartment today, his head in the oven of a gas stove whose jets were wide open.

Two months ago he made a similar attempt to end his life but was revived by an inhalator squad. He lived alone.

Two years ago Burkhardt was divorced by Mrs. Florence Burkhardt, a sister of Mayor Thompson, on charges of desertion.

Miami Assessments Offset Tax Raise

MIAMI, Fla., July 25.—(P)—An almost doubled tax rate for the city of Miami this year offset the reduction of nearly 50 per cent in the amount of assessments, city commissioners announced today.

The rate for the coming year is 23.5 mills as compared with 13.4 mills last year. The total assessment figure this year is $167,519,802. Last year it was $296,011,940.

Andrews Finds Fossil Treasure In Inner China

PEIPING, China, July 25.—(P)—On the shores of a dried-up inland sea near the outer Mongolian border, Roy Chapman Andrews, noted American explorer, has discovered what he believes one of the most amazing fossil deposits ever revealed.

In a death trap formed by a bog of sticky almost bottomless mud, the Andrews expedition has found the remains of 25 to 30 great shovel-toothed mastodons with 6-foot jaws, one of which had previously been found near the same locality in 1928. Mr. Andrews, who returned here last night on a brief trip said that so far four skulls, a number of jaws, 25 to 30 tusks and the hundreds of ribs found indicated one of the most extraordinary adaptations in the whole animal kingdom. He said that the animals must have roamed Mongolia 3,000,000 years ago.

Another pit filled with the remains of 10 to 15 baby mastodons was discovered. The young animals apparently had come there with their mothers to feed but were unable to extricate themselves from the treacherous quicksands.

The Andrews expedition now has a whole age series of shovel-toothed mastodons (platybelodon) from the early-bone to the oldest. The explorer said this made an unusual museum exhibit comparable only to dinosaurs found in 1923.

The expedition will work carefully along the shoreline of the lake in the hope of finding some place where primitive man, even older than the Peking man, may have been trapped. Later the expedition will move over to central Gobi in an effort to bring out the skeleton of a huge baluchatherium located there in 1928.

Matador Killed.

TOLEDO, Spain, July 25.—(P)—A young matador in a bull fight over a young matador in the bull fight in the suburb of Escalona today. One of the horns of the bull pierced the right thigh of Pedro Montero and the youth died in a hospital from loss of blood.

AIRCRAFT DESIGNER DIES AT HOSPITAL

Chance Vought Contemporary of Glenn Curtiss as Air Pioneer.

NEW YORK, July 25.—(AP)—Chance Vought, aircraft manufacturer and designer, died today in the Southampton, L. I., hospital after a long illness. He was 42.

Vought was one of the "early birds" of aviation, a contemporary of Glenn Curtiss, who died two days ago, of the Wright Brothers, Lieutenant Thomas Selfridge and other pioneers who flew the old "box kites" of 20 years ago.

Designer of many fighting planes and developer of the first standardized planes capable of withstanding the stresses of "shooting" from catapults on floating aircraft carriers, he was president at his death of the Lewis and Vought corporation, which he organized and which became this year a division of the United Aircraft and Transportation Company.

Death came at 2:30 a. m. (eastern standard time) today. His wife, the former Ena Lewis, of Pittsburgh, and their sons, Chance, Jr., and Peter, were at the bedside. The funeral probably will be held Monday.

Born in New York city on February 26, 1888, Vought was educated at Pratt Institute, New York University, the University of Pennsylvania, and left college in 1906 to become consulting engineer to Harold F. McCormick, of Chicago, later the first man in the United States to employ an airplane for commuting to his work.

Vought became identified with the Wrights in 1910 and attracted prominence by his daring flights. He joined the Mayo works in 1915 and designed and built the first of the fighting planes which now bear his name. In 1916 he became chief engineer for the Wright Company, and in 1917 he went to the same post in the merged Wright-Martin corporation of New York, and for it he designed and built many famous airplanes and flying boats of that day.

During the World War he was consulting engineer for the Bureau of Aircraft production.

As head of his own company of Lewis and Vought he designed and

M'CUTCHEON, WALLIS, WILLIAMSON INDICTED

France, Eureka Fire Hose and Foamite Industries Companies, gave evidence of payment of graft during the last six years amounting to $30,000. Hebert told the grand jury that while he made $10,000 in commissions on his Atlanta municipal contracts, he stood a net loss of $20,000, and was forced to like it. In reply to a question of why he paid and pocketed the huge loss, Hebert replied that Atlanta's position as the key city of the south left him no other course.

"If I had lost my Atlanta business, I'd have been left out in the cold all over the south from the Potomac river to the Rio Grande," he said. "I could never have explained why I lost my business here. Atlanta is the only city in my territory where I have been forced to pay and pay. The situation which has existed here is not duplicated so far as my experience goes, anywhere else in the entire south."

In The Constitution's news story, the indictments based on Hebert's testimony were predicted to call the case Monday of Walter C. Taylor, ex-clerk, in Judge Virlyn B. Moore's division of Fulton superior court. Taylor has appealed his conviction on one bribery charge to the state court of appeals, his motion for a new trial having been denied.

Sentence will be passed this morning on C. E. Martin, alias Jack Martin, convicted Thursday in Judge John D. Humphries' division on a charge of embezzlement. The jury fixed the penalty at one year, but recommended that the offense be treated as a misdemeanor. F. L. Norton was convicted earlier in the week on a similar charge. His sentence was fixed at one year by the jury, with a recommendation that the case be treated as a misdemeanor, and Judge Humphries gave Norton 12 months on the chain gang and a $500 fine. Both embezzlement convictions will be appealed, it was said.

Thirteen Officials Accused.

Thirteen members and former members of general council have been indicted since the graft probe began. In addition, there have been indicted two city physicians, several license inspectors, and others. One defendant has been acquitted, William P. Price, city purchasing agent. Taylor, ex-Councilman Harry York, Jack White, Martin, Norton, Alderman J. E. Turner, ex-Councilman W. E. Saunders have been convicted. Bruce Baxter, former superintendent of the city garage, and Wiley W. Melton, former custodian of the city auditorium-armory, have pleaded guilty.

Count one of the bribery indictment against Councilman McCutcheon alleges that on July 1, 1925, while a member of the board of firemen's, he received from Hebert $200 as a present and reward to influence McCutcheon's behavior in the matter of purchases of fire department equipment from the Eureka Fire Hose Manufacturing Company, the American LaFrance Fire Engine Company and the American LaFrance and Foamite Industries, Inc. The indictment alleges that the matter of such purchases was from time to time pending for consideration before the board of firemen's and after the alleged payment of money to McCutcheon. The true bill charges that the purpose of the payment of the money was to obtain McCutcheon's good will toward the companies named and to incline him toward favoring those companies in purchase of equipment for the department.

Williamson Counts.

The second count against McCutcheon is similar to the first, except that it charges him with receiving $250 from Hebert on July 1, 1920.

Alderman Williamson was indicted under five counts. He is charged in count one with accepting $100 from Hebert on July 1, 1920, in the purchase of equipment from the Eureka Fire Hose Manufacturing Company, the American LaFrance Fire Engine Company, and the American LaFrance and Foamite Industries, Inc. Count two alleges that Williamson received $100 from Hebert on July 1, 1923, in a similar transaction, and the payment, according to the statement of the accused, ostensibly was to reimburse him for lost time as a railroad conductor in attending meetings of council and the fire board.

Count three is similar in nature, charging that Williamson received $40 on July 1, 1929, from Hebert, ostensibly to replace money Williamson said he had stolen from his pocket. Count four alleges that he received $200 from Hebert on April 1, 1924, and $150 from Hebert on August 1, 1924, both of these counts naming only the Eureka company and the American LaFrance and Foamite Industries, Inc. Count five alleges that the $150 was paid ostensibly for the purpose of a trip to Buffalo to attend the fire chiefs' convention.

Charges Against Wallis.

The bill against Park Superintendent Wallis contains five counts, all alleging that he received sums of money from Sam Salzman in the flat of the purchase by the city of park and playground equipment from the Hill Standard Company.

The indictment alleges that Wallis' duties include the making of requests to the purchasing department for park and playground equipment, and the recommendation of the kind of equipment desired or the company from whom it should be bought.

Count one alleges that on June 4, 1927, Wallis received $252.38 from Salzman in the purchase of water pools, swimming and gymnasium outfits for $3,765.09, and that the reward was delivered subsequent to the procuring of the order but in pursuance of an agreement.

Count two charges Wallis with receiving $83.61 from Salzman July 5, 1927, in the purchase for $484.15 worth of outdoor gymnasium and slide equipment. Count three alleges that he received $432.31 on April 5, 1929, in the purchase of outdoor gymnasiums, merry-go-rounds, coasters, flying rings, and slides, for $5,705.03 by the city. Count four charges Wallis with receiving $348.91 on April 25, 1929, in the purchase by the city at a price of $4,662.20 of spring boards and merry-go-rounds. Count five charges the defendant with receiving $30.52 on June 9, 1928, in the purchase by the city of merry-go-rounds and swings for the sum of $407.

ITALY'S KING JOINS IN RELIEF WORK

scathed, but that she was completely dumb from fright. She could not speak a word after her frightful experience. The commander said the king had worked hard for 12 hours to free her.

The spirits of the demoralized people mounted rapidly with the appearance of the king among them. They began to talk about rebuilding their homes, most of which were crumbled by the shocks. They see in the king's visit the possibility the government intends soon to commence reconstruction of the smitten area.

Telegraph service has been restored throughout the afflicted zone. Telephone connections have been re-established in most villages and towns. Fighting systems also have been repaired and are in operation almost everywhere. In short, the work of repairing the colossal damage by the quake is going ahead with dispatch despite the dazing effect of the disaster. The people are showing signs of renewed interest in their surroundings and what they can do to reconstruct their homes and start life anew.

Estimates of the dead as tabulated by the United News remained at approximately 3,700. It appeared doubtful that the exact totals of dead would ever be accurately obtained. I have sought to find definite records, but these were destroyed in the ruins of the towns. The relief workers have already done much to aid the sufferers. They have had difficulty in traversing the steep mountain highways and the lanes off the main roads which lead over the hills to the hamlets which suffered most.

The army division at Naples has dispatched about 250 motor trucks into the stricken provinces, centering on Avellino and Benevento, where they are worst needed. This fleet of relief trucks has been augmented by 23 motor trucks.

The division has hurried into this area about 7,500 tents capable of giving safe shelter to over 30,000 persons. Their supplies already on hand and being distributed include 1,500 field blankets.

The Naples army unit also has sent in for distribution 136,000 cans of preserved meat, 118,000 rations of biscuits, 5,500 mattress covers, besides a number of camp, kitchen and medical materials.

They have aided in putting the relief work on an efficient, if somewhat military basis. They have sent in special lighting apparatuses enabling the relief work to continue at night.

A detachment of the engineers corps has erected a number of radio stations for inter-communications, and one powerful station has been set up, complementing the regular telegraph and telephone lines.

Under-Secretary of Public Works Leoni is in charge of the government's relief machinery at Rocchetta-Sant'Antonio. The government has taken complete charge of the relief work, discouraging private or public funds raised to aid the victims.

Leoni has called a meeting of prefects and other civil and military authorities. He is trying to co-ordinate the work and get it pushed ahead rapidly and efficiently. He has stressed the need of food supplies and tents.

The engineers corps has been particularly active since arriving on the scene of the quake. Members have told me they think it like many of the towns destroyed will be located at other spots when rebuilt.

They favor placing them in valleys, for the towns destroyed were those on the very tops of hills—a relic of medieval times when such gatherings of the people into communities on hill tops was necessary for self-defense.

STAPLES-MAGINNIS PLANS GIVEN

Wedding Takes Place
In First Baptist Church

The marriage of Miss Jeannette Staples and Robert L. Maginnis will be an interesting social event of Tuesday evening, August 19, taking place at 9 o'clock in the First Baptist church on Peachtree street, the charming bride-elect having embraced the Baptist faith when she was a little girl. She started in Sunday school at the age of 2; her mother, Mrs. J. M. Staples, started to Sunday school in the same church at the same age. Miss Staples is a teacher of the beginners' department, sponsor of the Tech Bible class and is president of the Y. W. A.

Dr. Louis D. Newton, pastor of Druid Hills Baptist, will perform the ceremony, which will be witnessed by a fashionable assemblage of relatives and friends. Miss Staples will be given in marriage by her great-uncle, John Aldridge, and Mr. Maginnis will have for his best man his brother, James Maginnis. Miss Maiese Cater, of Meridian, Miss., will be maid of honor, and Mrs. Forrest Adair, Jr., will act as matron of honor. The group of bridesmaids include Misses Cara Hinman, Mary Prim, Mrs. Charles Meriwether and Mrs. Arthur LeCraw. William White, Russell Turner, T. B. Higdon, Frank Taylor, J. R. Murdoch, Henley Floyd, William Maginnis and James Horne will act as groomsmen and ushers.

Mrs. Earl Sewell
Honors Visitor.

Mrs. Earl Sewell was hostess at a luncheon Wednesday at her home on Tenth street in honor of Mrs. Charles Mabry, of St. Louis, Mo., the guest of Mrs. W. B. Ellington. The guests included Mrs. Mabry, Mesdames Tyre Watson, W. B. Ellington, Carlton H. Ghesling, George W. Suratt, Bernard P. Canby. Thursday Mrs. Tyre Watson entertained at Davidson's tea room followed by a bridge party. Invited were Mesdames Charles Mabry, Earl Sewell, W. B. Ellington, Bernard P. Canby.

Mrs. Russell To Be Hostess at Tea.

Mrs. John G. Russell will entertain Tuesday at a bridge-tea and garden party at her home in Decatur in honor of Mrs. J. H. Johnson, who with Mr. Johnson and their children, Muriel and Richard, will leave August 2 for a motor trip to California and other points of interest. Mrs. Russell will be assisted by her mother, Mrs. A. M. Dunn, and Mrs. Charles E. Lawrence. Those invited include Mesdames A. A. Greene, T. K. Windham, R. B. Atkinson, M. M. Johnson, E. B. Chaplin, C. Richter Smith, of Concord; Phil E. Hartman, B. S. Embury, F. E. Radensleben, Roy Jones, W. K. Young, James E. Kirkpatrick, Edwin Suter, P. N. Brown, Evan P. Howell, Thomas A. Moye, Tom P. Bartholomew and Sarah Branch, the latter of Cedar-town.

Mrs. De Los Hill
Is Elected.

DENVER, Col., July 25.—Election of Mrs. De Los Hill, of Atlanta, as president and announcement that the Colorado unit of the organization had scored an all-time record increase in membership during the last year, featured the opening session of the Women's Auxiliary of the American Dental Association in Denver last Monday.

The opening meeting, which was followed by a luncheon attended by 200 members of the organization, took place at the Cosmopolitan hotel. The Colorado unit of the organization gained 108 members over its 1929 total of 105, an increase of more than 100 per cent, it was reported.

A Denver woman, Mrs. A. H. Ketchum, was elected secretary. Other officers elected by the organization were: Vice presidents, Mrs. E. L. Grisamore, of Wilmette, Ill.; Mrs. H. Boyd Bogie, of Nashville, Tenn.; Mrs. W. C. Graham, of Columbus, Ohio; Mrs. N. W. Goodman, of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Dayton Campbell, of Kansas City, Mo.; corresponding secretary, Mrs. B. C. Vann, of Atlanta, Ga.; recording secretary, Mrs. Frederick H. Lunn, of Chatham, N. J.; historian, Mrs. C. F. Kramer, of Colorado Springs.

Parties Planned
For Newlyweds

Mr. and Mrs. Weyman Willingham, whose marriage was a recent event, taking place in Great Neck, L. I., will arrive today to visit their mother, Mrs. J. N. Willingham, on Elizabeth street. A number of parties are planned for Mr. and Mrs. Willingham, including the bridge-dinner given Monday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Holditch at Druid Hills Golf Club. Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Willingham will assist in entertaining the 35 guests. Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Culpepper will give a bridge-supper Tuesday evening at their home on Waverly way, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Willingham. Among others planning parties are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Pharr and Mr. and Mrs. Willingham, and Mrs. Willingham are en route to St. Petersburg, Fla., where they will make their home. Mrs. Willingham before her marriage was Miss Ellen Olsen, of Great Neck, L. I.

Mrs. Ernest B. Williams Gives
Party to Confederate Veterans

Sixty Confederate veterans and other guests were entertained Wednesday afternoon at Grant park by Mrs. Ernest B. Williams, adjutant of Camp Tige Anderson, No. 1455, U. C. V.

Mrs. Williams, who is stationed at that as this was the date of the anniversary of her birth and that she was so thankful that she was physically able to be with them and had been spared all the long years past to work for and with the veterans. Honorable P. C. Battle, introduced the Honorable D. Rivers, one of the candidates for governor of Georgia, who had come over from Covington just to be present at this party for the veterans. Mr. Rivers delivered an interesting address, expressing his regard for the veterans and pledging his future efforts in their behalf just as he had always done both in the house of representatives of the Georgia legislature, and was loudly applauded.

Organizations were represented by the following: Adjutant General Alex Smith, Adjutant (Georgia division, U. C. V.); General James L. Driver, commander North Georgia Brigade, U. C. V.; J. R. Jones, commander Tige Anderson Camp, U. C. V.; Colonel R. de T. Lawrence, pension commissioner of Georgia; Judge J. B. Strong, superintendent Soldiers' home; Mrs. Kate T. Logue, president, and Miss Annie Forsyth, Pioneer Women's Society of Atlanta; Mrs. J. Sid Holland, Atlanta Ladies Memorial Association; Mrs. J. B. Phillips, Atlanta chapter, U. C. V.; Mrs. Charles L. Anderson, Joseph Habersham, D. A. R.; several members of the League of Women Voters and Dr. Thomas R. Kendall, Sr., the Methodists of Atlanta; Colonel T. C. Battle, on behalf of the members of Camp Tige Anderson, U. C. V. presented Mrs. Williams with a gift as a token of appreciation and love for the best adjutant of the best camp in the state or the entire U. C. V. Mrs. Williams thanked the members for their confidence and love and pledged her continued loyalty in their behalf the men who were her deceased father's comrades and friends.

Refreshments were served by the club members, including Mesdames W. M. Gordy, Arthur Taylor, M. G. Murchison, S. L. Clower, Grover Tillis, Emily Jarvis, Nannie Cunningham, Charles L. Anderson, Misses Elton and Edna Taylor and Charlotte Hazelton.

Barnesville Garden
Club Awards Prizes.

BARNESVILLE, Ga., July 25.—Mrs. J. M. Rogers, president of the Garden Club of Barnesville, announces winners in a contest sponsored by the club. A beautification program was put on and in order to stimulate interest a number of local firms lent support, and donated prizes for excellence in this work.

The first prize, a chiffron manufactured by the Smiths, Inc., was given to Mrs. W. C. Jordan, for the extensive work done on the downtown parkways under her direction. Second prize, a box of rayon lingerie, manufactured and donated by the Georgia Knitting Mills, Junius Cason, owner, was won by Mrs. W. D. Williams, who had charge of the work on the plot of ground back of the Gordon Cafe; third, a rayon pajama ensemble, given by the William Carter Company, went to Mrs. W. C. Stafford, who was chairman of the clubhouse grounds committee; fourth, a lawn bench, made and given by the Barnesville Planning Mill, was awarded to Mrs. S. Batson, who had for her part a park on Zebulon street; fifth, a year's subscription to the Barnesville News-Gazette, given by B. H. Hardy, editor, was won by Mrs. J. F. Wooten, who had charge of a vacant lot on Thomaston street. The women worked untiringly in their efforts to make beauty spots of what were formerly drab, uninteresting looking plots of ground.

Mrs. Rogers, the president, aided each committee, and a great part of the credit is due her. Barnesville's Garden Club is one of the most active and useful organizations in the town, and is appreciated in a full measure by the citizenry. During the recent Press Association convention in Barnesville, fresh flowers were provided each day for the stage of the convention hall, and for entertainments by committees from the club.

BURGESS CHILDREN'S STORIES

JIM CROW PLAYS A LITTLE JOKE.

By Thornton W. Burgess.

What is life that knows no fun?
Better it had not begun.

—Jim Crow.

It didn't take Jim Crow very long to make himself very much at home at Farmer Brown's. Farmer Brown's boy had planned to clip one of Jim Crow's wings, so that he wouldn't be able to fly away; but he didn't have to do that. Jim Crow didn't want to fly away. He was quite satisfied not to fly away. In other words, Jim Crow was smart enough to know when he was well off. Farmer Brown's boy made a place for him in the barn, and every night when it began to get dark Jim Crow would go there of his own accord. Like his father and mother, he had no desire to be roaming around after dark. He might be very bold and brave in daylight, but as soon as it got dark Jim Crow was afraid and he didn't care who knew it.

Now, Jim Crow was very much interested in the hens. Every morning he would go out to the henyard with Farmer Brown's boy and watch the latter feed the hens. He would sit on one of the posts of the henyard and, with his head cocked on one side, he would watch everything that Farmer Brown's boy did. Then he would ride back on the shoulder or head of Farmer Brown's boy. He was sure that no one else was listening, Jim Crow would try imitating Farmer Brown's boy when he called the hens to be fed. Over and over he would try it, until at last he was satisfied that he could do it pretty well. One morning Jim Crow wasn't to be found when it came time to feed the hens. "I wonder where the rooster is," said Farmer Brown's boy. "It isn't like him not to be on hand to help feed the hens." He called Jim, but got no answer. He looked around the barn for him; he looked in all of Jim Crow's favorite places. He didn't see so much as a single black feather of Jim Crow.

"Well, I can't wait for him," said Farmer Brown's boy. "The hens must be fed." He started for the henhouse. Perhaps you can imagine his surprise when as he turned the corner of the barn he heard some one calling those hens. He looked up to see the hens all racing across the henyard, and there was Jim Crow, poking sticks through the chicken wire. He was pretending to feed those hens, and all the time he was calling them. Then he flew up on the nearest post, and Farmer Brown's boy was sure that Jim Crow was laughing, even if he made no sound.

"I wouldn't have believed it, if I hadn't seen it myself," said Farmer Brown's boy, as he told Mother Brown about it afterward. "There were those hens, walking around with the most surprised and disappointed looks, and there was Jim Crow, enjoying his little joke. There isn't any doubt about it—he was enjoying his little joke. You should have seen his eyes twinkle when I went over to him and spoke to him." After that Jim Crow played that joke often. Whenever he could think of nothing else to do he would go over and call the hens, and then offer them little sticks or pebbles. He would do it several times a day. Now, hens are not such stupid creatures as some people think. After a while they refused to come to Jim Crow's call. They were no longer fooled. And finally Jim Crow gave up his little joke in disgust. But while it lasted it was a very funny performance to watch.

Mother Files Suit
In Drowning of Girl

Mrs. J. R. McDaniel, wife of a DeCATUR dentist and mother of Virginia McDaniel, 13-year-old junior high school student who was drowned in the Sweet Gum Valley swimming pool June 25, Friday, instituted a $50,000 damage suit against T. E. Anderson, operator of the pool.

Mrs. McDaniel's petition alleges that Anderson was negligent in not having the pool drainage covered with a screen or grating and that he was negligent also in turning on the drainage valves while bathers were in the pool. Branch & Howard are her attorneys.

HAROLD, WHEN YOU TOLD ME YOU SAW THAT THREE-EYED APE AROUND HERE, AFTER I HAD SEEN IT KILLED, I THOUGHT YOU WERE DREAMING. NOW—I DON'T KNOW WHAT TO BELIEVE.

WHY? HAVE YOU SEEN IT AGAIN, THEN?

TOLD YOU HE SAW IT?

NO, BUT I HAVE THE WORD OF ONE I WOULDN'T DOUBT ON A STACK OF BIGLES, HERMAN THE FIDDLER—

YES, AND I KNOW HE SAW IT. I COULD TELL BY HIS FACE, AND I KNOW HE WAS NOT LYING.

WELL, IF IT WAS THE THREE-EYED APE—

THAT'S JUST IT, HAROLD. THERE COULDN'T BE TWO FREAKS WITH THREE EYES—YET, I SAW THAT APE KILLED, AND DEAD AS A DOORNAIL.

STYLES BY ANNETTE

THE IRRESISTIBLE CHARM OF THE PEPLUM FLOUNCE DRESS.

BY ANNETTE.

The Russian influence is apparent in this smart frock of mahogany brown crepe silk.

The plumed flounce, that follows the moulded neckline, is a smart detail of fall frocks.

It is an especially smart street dress.

The circular skirt is cleverly cut, extending into attractive flared fullness at the hem.

Style No. 813 will be found extremely easy to make. The substantial saving is well worth while.

Scott Continues Heavy Work as Stribling Reaches Peak for Fight

BILL TILDEN DEFEATS BOROTRA; LOTT LOSES

SCOTT IS SLOW REACHING FORM FOR STRIB BOUT

Georgian on Edge for Battle Monday. Max Refuses Invitation.

WINDSOR, England, July 25.—(AP)—Although Young Stribling, his opponent in the battle for "the heavy-weight championship of the world" in London Monday has halted heavy training, Phil Scott, the British boxer, plans to continue "stiff workouts" through Sunday.

Scott has been slower in reaching top shape than the youthful Georgian and believes the extra day's work will improve his condition and leave him physically fit for the Monday night encounter at Wembley Stadium. The Briton knocks off a few pounds each day and expects to enter the ring weighing 202 as against 191 for Stribling.

The Georgian boxer is already at his peak, Pa Stribling, the father-manager, thinks he has reached perfect condition a day ahead of time, but believes that a light workout tomorrow and a long walk Sunday will ready him for the conflict.

Stribling was on edge, high strung and nervous in his last go with the sparring partners. He banged away at his four helpers for five rounds and then dismissed the "enters," deciding that further boxing would not help any. Trainer Alex Goodman was retained and will supervise the final days of training.

STRIB IS HEAVIER.
Pa attributed Stribling's slowness and lack of aim in his last boxing appearance to approaching stalemate. Stribling weighed 196 in gym clothes, which would approximate 191 net. With this belt, the Georgian will weigh two or three pounds more than he has for any other important engagement of his career.

Even then he will concede 11 pounds to the British standard-bearer, but the American's superior speed and youthfulness probably will offset the weight disadvantage.

Although invited, Max Schmeling, the German heavyweight and present champion, declined Promoter Jeff Dickson's request that he witness the bout.

Strib To Fight Christner in Macon.

MACON, Ga., July 25.—(AP)—K. O. Christner, Akron (Ohio) heavyweight, has been named to fight W. Young Stribling, American boxer, here on Labor Day, September 1, in the Georgian's first bout after his return from overseas and the July 28 with Phil Scott in London.

Charlie Morgan, Macon promoter, announced today that he had completed all arrangements for the contest.

Hines and Beaver Take Two Titles

GREENVILLE, S. C., July 25.—(AP)—Wilmer Hines, of Columbia, and "Sandy" Beaver, of Gainesville, Ga., southern doubles champions, added two titles to their collections here this afternoon when they won the men's and juniors' doubles championships of the Carolinas at the Greenville Country Club.

Hines and "Lefty" Bryan, of Chattanooga, Tenn., met tomorrow afternoon for the singles championship. The Dixie champions defeated Bryan and Ed Newell, also of Chattanooga, in straight sets, 6-2, 6-4, 6-3, to win the men's title. The Tennesseeans battled gamely but could not match the splendid team work of the winners.

In the junior doubles finals, Hines and Beaver dropped a set but overcame Dave Morgan and H. Shuford, both of Asheville, 6-2, 6-2, 3-6, Asheville pair put up a stubborn resistance.

Hines is the favorite of tournament followers to win tomorrow's singles final. The 17-year-old Columbian is in top form.

Mercur Is Beaten In Canadian Meet

TORONTO, Ont., July 25.—(AP)—Fritz Mercur, No. 6 ranking tennis player in the United States, was eliminated from the Canadian lawn tennis championships today in a surprise defeat by Gilbert Nunn, of Toronto. The Canadian won in three out of four sets by the scores of 4-6, 6-4, 6-4, 6-4.

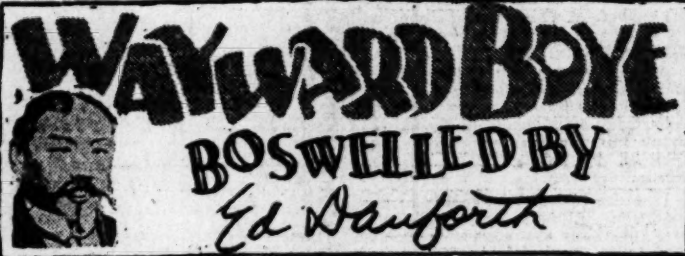

Gilbert Hall, of East Orange, N. J., joined his countryman from Bethlehem, Pa., in defeat when he fell before the attack of G. Lytle Rogers, of Ireland, 6-2, 6-6, 9-7, 6-2.

The defeat of the United States representatives places Nunn and Rogers in the finals.

Dewey Scarborough Has Novel Course

Dewey Scarborough, football star at Georgia Tech a few years ago, is opening one of the city's most novel miniature golf courses next door to the Medical Arts building on Peachtree street.

Scarborough has worked out several unique effects in his "New Way Course." His greens are said to be superior to grass greens. A big opening is anticipated for the new addition to the night golf of the city.

Wayward Boye, The Man Without a Mind of His Own, after weeks of deliberation in the seclusion of the second bench on the left in the Terminal station, gave the following exclusive announcement to The Atlanta Constitution. (All rights and lefts reserved; ladies admitted free when accompanied by one paid admission):

"While I deeply appreciate my public's demand that I enter the national tree-sitting contest as evidence of the high regard in which my public holds me as a marathon lounge on flagpoles, hot stoves, hotel chairs, and smokestacks, I do not choose to sit at this time. My nerves won't stand it, or should I say, sit it? Ha! Ha! Ha!"

"Well, anyhow, folks, the view is fine from where I am now and if I had time I would tell you why I am not entering the national tree-sitting contest at this time to bring fame to Atlanta by having another national champion in my midst."

"But the time is getting short and the night air is paved with cold, so I will just thank you one and all and wish you good night."

Good night! I could have told you long ago that Wayward never would climb a tree again. Oh! No! He did that once. Wayward says he has no time to relate the story behind his refusal to revert to type and go back to his old home in the branches. But I will explain.

DIDN'T WANT TO PLAY.
Wayward was in college up in Kentucky during my sophomore year. Wayward was fresh from the eastern Kentucky mountains. He had never heard of hazing. In fact he had never had a haircut.

So when a band of yelling sophomores making the rounds of the old dormitory to see that every freshman had his hair clipped, opened Wayward's door, they found him ready. Wayward was seated at a table opposite and facing the door. At his left hand was a book on elementary physics. At his right hand was a blue steel forty-five with a long barrel.

The whole matter seemed sort of sacrilegious to Wayward. You see he had never had his hair cut and he had read a lot in the Bible about a bloke named Samson. So he just sat there and eyed the sophomores coldly.

USED STRATEGY.

The sophomores stopped laughing and yelling suddenly and with one accord decided to postpone the barbering operations. They waited until a lookout across the corridor reported Wayward had gone to bed. Then they climbed in the window, secured the forty-five and laid hands on Wayward.

By a superhuman effort Wayward broke from their clutches and fled in terror. He leaped through an open window head foremost. His night shirt popped like a whip crack as he swished through. He somersaulted to his feet and lit running. Down the hill he flew like a runaway ghost with the yelling sophomores after him.

Instinctively Wayward climbed a tree at the foot of the hill. He climbed rapidly and reaching a fork composed himself. Up came two volunteers after him. Wayward broke off a small branch and as they reached for him Wayward pounded them on the head. They descended by the numbers.

THE FALL.

A council of war was held below. Two were detailed to wait at the foot of the tree while the others adjourned to Billy's for Pabst and palaver. Wayward settled himself as comfortably as possible in the fork. After an hour the two watchers were relieved. These in turn were relieved.

A night shift was no protection against the chill air. Wayward turned and twisted. He sought another fork higher up that looked more comfortable. It was toward 4 o'clock in the morning when Wayward dozed and fell out ker-blam.

Stunned by the fall he was easily subdued by the guards and his hands bound with a pair of suspenders.

Wayward, beaten, was led up to the dormitory.

Someone thoughtfully had provided a gallon bucket of sorghum molasses. They removed his nightshirt. They cut his hair. Then they poured the molasses over his head and shook the contents of two feather pillows over him. In this garb he was ejected from the torture chamber.

If that does not explain why Wayward has an inferiority complex about sitting in trees, then I give up.

Suits Against Max Settled Out of Court

NEW YORK, July 25.—(AP)—Two suits in which warrants of attachment had been obtained against Max Schmeling, German heavyweight boxer, and his German manager, were discontinued in supreme court today.

One was brought against the fighter by Arthur Bulow, his German manager, for an alleged debt of $60,000. The other was brought against Bulow by Harry Hechheimer, attorney, for $10,000 for professional services. It was indicated that both suits had been settled out of court.

Cabaret Employe Sues Billy Arnold

CHICAGO, July 25.—(AP)—William Arnold, Indianapolis and Altoona auto race winner, was made defendant in a $50,000 breach of promise suit. The praecipe of which was filed today in superior court by attorneys for Miss Theresa Kinnish, 24, employee of a cabaret.

PAUL JONES WINS.
KNOXVILLE, Tenn., July 25.—(AP)—Paul Jones, lanky Texas wrestler, won a two-out-of-three fall match over Marshall "Dynamite" Blackstock here tonight through the application of his famous hook and scissors hold.

CANADIAN PRO HOLDS HIS LEAD IN OPEN MEET

Thompson Scores 71 for 137 Total—Americans Close on Heels.

ANCASTER, Ont., July 25.—(AP)—Leading professionals from the United States unleashed one attack after another today but could not dislodge Nicol Thompson, Sr., veteran Canadian pro, from the lead in the Canadian Open golf championship.

Tonight with half the 72 holes behind him, Thompson, approaching the 50-year mark, led the field by one stroke with a dozen stars from below the border just behind him. The Canadian, with the advantage of playing over his own course, the links of the Hamilton Country Club, shot a consistent round of 71 today, which with his 66 in the first round gave him a 36-hole total of 137 and the lead by one stroke over Tony Manero of Elmford, N. Y., who shot his second 69 in as many days for a total of 138.

Tied for third place at 139 were Johnny Farrell, of Mamaroneck, N. Y., and Walter Hagen. Farrell produced the most amazing display of golf of the day with a 66, four under par, covering the first nine holes in 31 strokes. Hagen, who took a 70 yesterday, eluded one stroke off the figure today for his total of 139.

Back of this pair were Al Watrous, of Detroit, and Emmet French, of Southern Pines, N. C., with 140. Watrous added a 72 today to his 68 of yesterday while French reversed that procedure. Four more stars from the United States checked in at the halfway mark with 141. These included George Von Elm, of Detroit, who set the pace for the amateurs; Leo Diegel, of Agua Caliente; MacDonald Smith, of New York; and Charles Lacey, of Philadelphia.

U. S. THREATS.
Still in a contending position at 142 were four Americans and C. Ross Somerville, of London, Ont., former Canadian amateur champion. Jim Barnes added another 71 to his total; Tom Kerrigan, of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., came through with a 69 after his 73 of yesterday; Tommy Armour, Detroit pro, eluded six strokes off his first day's figures with a 68, and J. Henney, a comparative unknown from Rochester, N. Y., added a 72 to a first round 70.

The biggest disappointments of the day were Horton Smith, pro at Cranston, N. Y., club and Ed Dudley, of Wilmington, Del. Dudley, who was up among the leaders with a 69 yesterday, needed 75 today for a 36-hole total of 144. Horton Smith added a mediocre 73 over the easy course to his 72 of yesterday for a total of 145.

The final 36 holes will be played tomorrow with all players within 20 strokes of each other.

In the last half of the championship, Spicer and Boyd.

Spicer and Boyd Enter Final Round

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., July 25.—(AP)—Sleek-haired Emmet Spicer, of Memphis, veteran of numerous golfing wars, today battled his way into the finals of the 15th annual tournament of the Tennessee Golf Association, and will defend his title tomorrow against the threat of Pollack Boyd, sorrel-topped Chattanooga ace.

The two finalists will fire 36 holes of golf, 18 in the morning and 18 in the afternoon. Spicer has a record of 200 yards by Bully Smith. New Orleans aquatic star, marked the opening today of the third annual Mississippi state swimming championships on Livingston Park lake.

Smith's time for the 200 yards was 2:16.1, there being no present record for this distance.

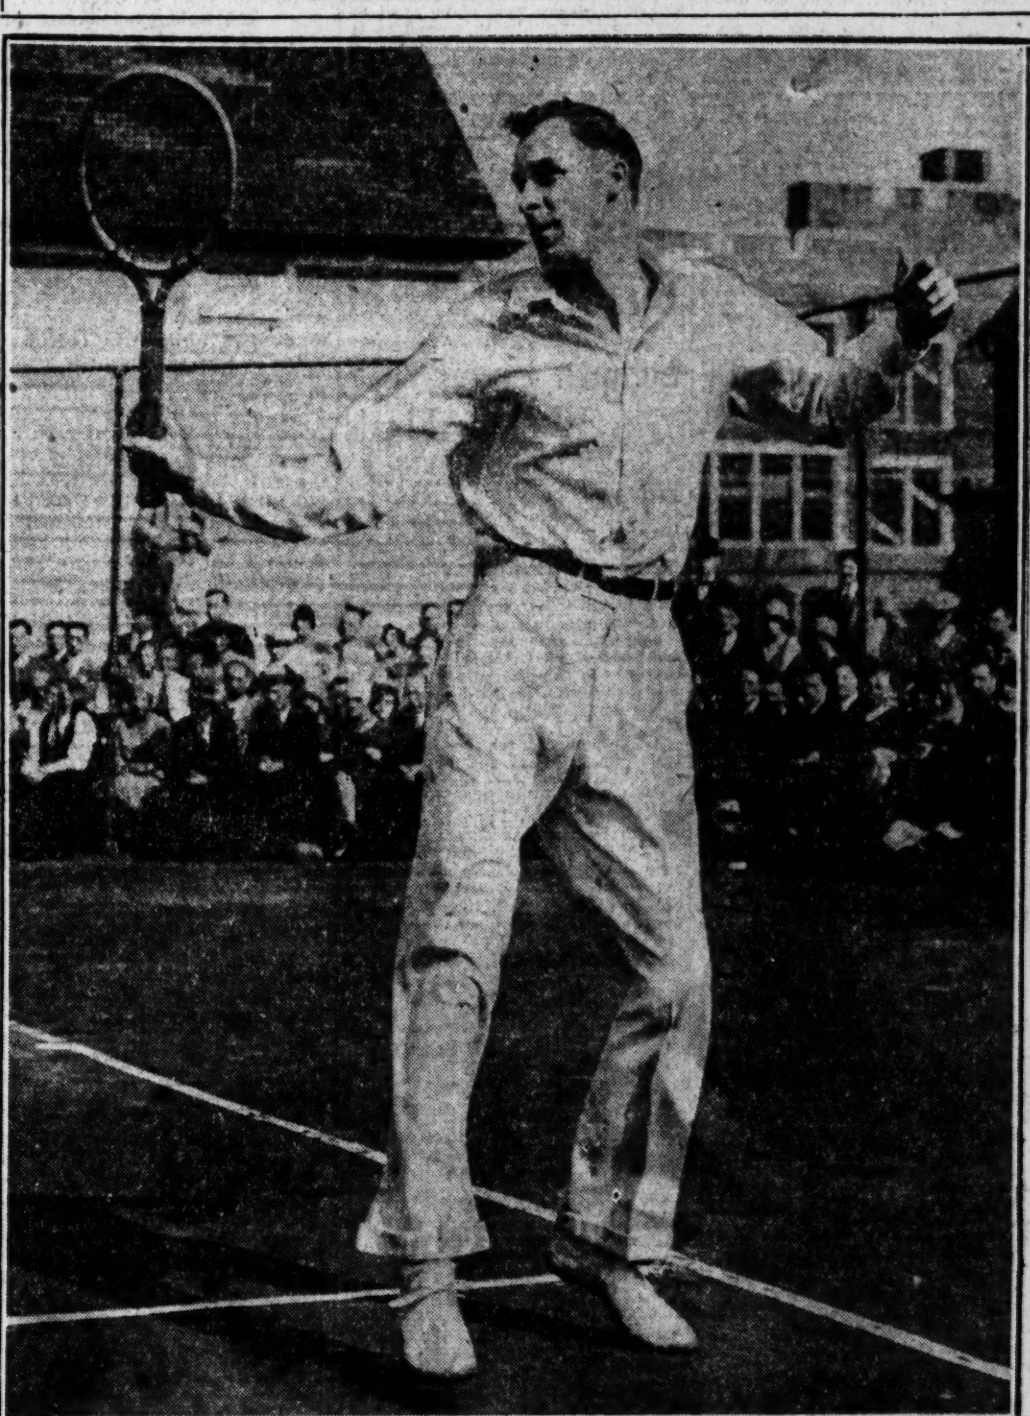

The record will be recognized as official since the swim is under direction of the Southern Association Amateur Athletic Union of the United States.

The junior relay team of Bloxi captured this event from Jackson at second and Vicksburg in third position.

Marjorie Morrill Wins Essex Title

MANCHESTER, England, July 25.—(AP)—Miss Marjorie Morrill, of Dedham, lately defeated Miss Marjorie Gladman, of Santa Monica, Cal., 6-1, 6-2, in the final match of the Essex Country Club invitation tennis singles.

Same Old Bill Tilden

Bill Tilden, veteran of 11 Davis cup campaigns, is shown in action above in one of recent matches. Big Bill yesterday defeated John Borotra in the opening match of the fight for the cup. This gave America an even break in the first day's matches, George Lott bowing to Henri Cochet in the second match.

CRACKERS LOSE NIGHT GAME, 4-3

Andy Chambers Hurls for Atlanta But Fails; Holly Wins Tilt.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., July 25.—(Special).—Playing their first game of baseball under the powerful floodlights, the Crackers met defeat at the hands of the Little Rock Travelers, 4 to 3.

The two teams fought on even terms until the first half of the fourth when the Crackers broke through with one run to take a short lead. The Travelers came back in their half of the same round with two scores for the edge. The Crackers tied it in the fifth and went ahead in the eighth when the locals added two more runs in their half of this frame to win the game. A single by Holly scored the two runs.

Andy Chambers, new addition to the Crackers' mound staff, pitched good ball, allowing 10 hits, but was bested by Moon, who held the Crackers to only 7 blows. Chambers struck out four men and walked three, while Moon fanned one and issued two passes.

BILL MASTERS, DEMON BASQUE IN FINE MATCH

Fighting Frenchman Falls Before Strategy of 'Old Master.'

By Andre Glarner.

French Tennis Expert.

PARIS, July 25.—(North American Newspaper Alliance).—Big Bill Tilden defeated Jean Borotra in the first match of the Davis cup challenge round here today, 2-6, 7-5, 6-4, 7-5, and George Lott lost to Henri Cochet in straight sets, 6-4, 6-2, 6-2.

When Napoleon created the Order of the Legion of Honor he never realized that awarding the cross to the brave would have such an influence on a tennis match as undoubtedly was the case today at the Autel tennis stadium, which was packed with the densest crowd that ever witnessed a tennis match in France. The honor of the country was at stake.

A few minutes before the start the official of affairs officially informed Borotra that he had been awarded the Order of the Legion of Honor, not only for sports propaganda, but for military record. This caused the bouncing Basque to open the game against Tilden as a real demon from the outset. He seemed a real whirlwind, taking his service in the first game at love.

Tilden evaded Borotra, however, and broke through with the old master's service at 30 and at love in the fourth and sixth games. Tilden only took one other game, the seventh, when, after two deuces, he passed Borotra with two beautifully long chopped drives. But the first set was gone, 6-2.

Would the second go likewise? Tilden was behind, 4-1, when gamely he realized the danger and used more cut strokes, only varying this occasionally with a very flat, speedy drive which most always took a point. Still Borotra took his service and led, 5-2. But Tilden had the Frenchman guessing. The eighth, ninth and tenth games were won by him at 30, the score thus becoming even at 5-all.

TILDEN RISES.
Then came the crucial moment and Tilden rose to the occasion. Recovering the possession of all his wonderful tennis genius, the American scored three service aces that turned the tide and then won the set. At the beginning of the third set Borotra attempted with all his might to increase the speed of the exchanges, but for Tilden wouldn't let him do so. Borotra came to the net more frequently to be passed with either lofty dropped shots or heavy drives to the corners.

Tilden now had his distance. Every stroke told on the stamina of the Frenchman, who was failing gradually. The three first games went with the service then Borotra broke through and Tilden returned the compliment to run out 6-4 on Borotra's own service, in which he dramatically served two double faults, the only faults of the day.

The huge crowd didn't despair. Ten minutes rest were given the players, both sprinting to the showers to discard their wet clothes. Still the Frenchman was by far in the best condition.

FINISH QUICKLY.
Tilden started the fourth set as if he wanted to finish it off in a hurry and everything looked as if that were possible, as Borotra, despite the real showed little reaction and piled errors upon errors. He tried to speed up the game. Tilden, however, was the master and kept sending long, fast, beautiful halfway dropped shots, making Borotra run a marathon to reach the ball, which he suddenly came to realize.

When led by five games to one, the Frenchman rose to the occasion, taking the next four games at 15, 30, 30 and deuce. The crowd was now going wild with enthusiasm. Their idol was once more before them.

Big Bill was the only cool person on the court with not a drop of perspiration on him. He broke through Borotra's service, playing two balls on the baseline. When the Frenchman had come to the net again and again he slowed up the exchanges with his short sliced balls which Borotra returned with weak hand.

GREAT STAND.
He won the eleventh game at 30, returning a long drive with a perfect crossed drive to the off foot and ran out the winner in the next and last game at 30, when, after having twice come to the net, he sent two hot drives which Borotra returned outside the court.

By that time Tilden had become the hero of the French crowd and it was justified, as he had just finished one of the best and greatest generalship games of his career. The way he turned the tide when everything was going against him in the second set, breaking the changing game of his obliging him to play the kind of game he had needed to make him play, was one of the best things a lover of tennis could wish to see.

After this magnificent match the Lott-Cochet encounter was an anti-

Unique Formula Makes Memphis Unique Team

Tom Watkins, Unobtrusive Owner, "Yes-es" and Team Climbs Heights.

By Ralph McGill.

Tom Watkins, the genial gentleman who owns the Memphis baseball club, has a formula for keeping a team in the first division and winning an occasional pennant.

It is—"Keep your own name out of the paper as much as possible. Popularize your manager. Trust his judgment. Don't override him. Don't enter into discussions with players. Let him handle them."

Whether this formula is the open sesame to baseball success or not may be debated. The fact remains, however, that by using it Tom Watkins has managed to be the unobtrusive owner of a team that is usually in the thick of the pennant fight and one that has won quite a few flags.

This year Watkins' team has been in front since the teams jockeyed for position at the start of the race. "Doc Prothro is solely responsible," says Watkins. "He has hustled and has made the team himself. All I did was 'yes' him. Meanwhile his team remains the unique one of the league's history. It needs but 36 more victories to set a new games won record for the league. It has been in front all the way."

SELF-SUFFICIENT.
Ever since they went into the lead most of the baseball writers and owners have been freely predicting that the Memphis club would crack.

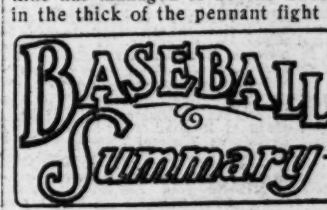

Even in Memphis the baseball writers say that the Chicks are no better than two or three other clubs in the league. They refuse to believe that the Chicks are the club they seem.

PASSING STRANGE.
All this is more than passing strange. No one can beat them. No one threatens. They seem assured of a new record of 105 games won.

And yet there are many so-called wise noggins which will brag knowingly and insist that the Memphis club is just an ordinary one.

Memphis' pitchers, seemingly the best of the lot, have none of the earmarks of great pitchers. There are about three who seem sure to be solid.

Martin Grants Dobbs Short Suspension Lift

MEMPHIS, Tenn., July 25.—(AP).—The suspension of Johnny Dobbs, Atlanta Crackers' manager, was lifted temporarily today by President John D. Martin, of the Southern association, so that Johnny may direct his team in its first night baseball game at Little Rock tonight.

President Martin said Dobbs must remain out the following two days, completing a three-day sentence. He was suspended and fined $25 after an altercation here with Umpire Bill Brennan.

JIM THE CONQUEROR

By PETER B. KYNE

Thirty-fourth installment.

"For company," Don Jaime murmured, and indicated that Roberto should occupy it. Then he sat in at the organ, pulled out the stops and tried the pedals. Finding some difficulty he stood erect and peered back of the organ. And now, Roberto realized why her host kept a short buggy whip on top of the instrument, for he seized it and administered a smart tap to something hidden from her gaze.

"Si, Don Jaime, si," a voice cried anxiously.

"The trouble with my people," Don Jaime whispered, "is that if permitted to lean against anything they fall asleep. My organ-pumper is no exception."

The padre, in his vestments, entered from the sacristy, and as he advanced to the altar Don Jaime's little organ crashed into a sonorous prelude; then his brown choir, taking the cue from a vigorous nod of the master's raven head, sang:

"Come, Holy Ghost, Creator blest,
And in our hearts take up thy rest."

The girl watched Don Jaime, who knew not one note of another but who played amazingly well by ear because God had created him a troubadour. His dark face was alight with the delight he gleaned from simple task; for all his huge body, there was in his attitude and in the luster of his eyes something that proclaimed to her again the odd, little-boy quality in him, and she knew he had never been touched before.

She gazed about her. Dusky fat women, in bright print calico dresses and gay shawls, men in overalls and slacks, gingham shirts, sans neckties, their sombreros on the floor beside them; little barefoot boys and girls, their black eyes staring curiously, knelt on the hard red tiles.

His people! Never before had she met a man who claimed as his people those with whom he could not claim a blood relationship. Never before had she met a man whose clanish instincts, whose reverence for the traditions of his ancestors, were so strong as in Don Jaime. A part of the man dwelt in the remote past, content with the riches of simplicity and health, contemptuous of money for money's sake, scornful of its power—a sort of spiritual worldling chained to his environment by the obligations it thrust upon him, yet not wishing to avoid or decrease them, rather relishing them, in fact.

"Strange, strange man," the girl reflected. "There he sits with a look of exaltation on his face, and yet I know he has not the most remote interest in the ultimate disposal of his immortal soul. He killed my Uncle Tom and is too honest to think of pretending to me that he regrets it. This morning he said he loved me—yet he has not made love to me nor will he. I wonder if that was just some of his Irish blarney or his Castilian instinct for conveying compliments for their own sake. He's a strange mixture, yet there is nothing complex about him. He thinks straight, talks straight, and acts straight. He couldn't dissemble if he wanted to. Oh, dear, I'm afraid I wish I had never met him. He's one of those terrible men one must take seriously."

The service proceeded. Roberto dreamed on. . . . Don Jaime's low voice reached her. "Now, then, Bobby, do your stuff."

She sang as she had never sung before. "See their eyes," Don Jaime whispered as she sang. "The poor devils. They loved it. Handel's 'Where'er You Walk,' isn't sung in our church, but who here knows the difference and who cares? An encore, Bobby."

She sang it. Then she sat through a sermon in Spanish at the conclusion of which the padre, addressing Don Jaime, bade him to convey his thanks and that of his progenitors to the American men. Don Jaime translated his message, and a few minutes later she saw him stooping over the lap of a girl and lifting therefrom an infant. He carried it over to Roberto. "My soon-to-be godson," he explained. "Little brown rascal. He's as fat as a woodchuck, and when he grows up he will be unenergetic, if not downright lazy. Well, to the baptismal font with him. Here comes the padre."

She watched him holding the stolid infant while the sacrament of baptism was administered; she marked the pride and pleasure in the young mother's face at this signal honor conferred upon her and hers, when, the ceremony over, Don Jaime kissed the infant and the mother the customary largesse. To the godmother, too, he made a gift of money; then, with a paternal pat on the shoulders of all concerned, including the padre, he rejoined Roberto and together they walked back through the pueblo to the hacienda. En route women curtsied to them, men removed their hats and bowed, soft voices murmured, "Buenos dias, Don Jaime," cur dogs sniffed his heels and grimy little hands were thrust into his.

At the head of the single street Don Jaime looked back. "A contented people," he declared. "Chilli peppers drying on every roof and ample corn for the tortillas; a tiny garden for onions and lettuce and beans, labor exchanged for bright calico and overalls and gingham at cost at the ranch commissary; no debts, no rents, no lawsuits, freedom from a puritanical code of morals. Nothing to annoy them save a little labor for the man who exploits them and pays them starvation wages and who when they are naughty, whips them. Sometimes I could wish I, too, were a peon. Roll-weevil and the price of beef bothers them not, nor taxes nor notes at the bank."

"No sheep," Roberto supplemented. "Speaking of which," he continued, "we will ride out and visit the woolies after luncheon, if you care for a ride. We've kept holy the Sabbath forenoon so let us enjoy the Sabbath afternoon."

Crooked Bill meanwhile was wondering why his niece was such a poor correspondent, when Harms, the butler, entered with the mail. Two envelopes, one slim and the other fat, bore the return address of the Rancho Valle Verde, so Crooked Bill opened the slim one and read:

"My dear Mr. Latham: I wired you for permission to pay my court to your very lovely niece, Miss Antrim. In granting the desired permission, for which I am deeply grateful, you saw fit to give me some wholly unnecessary and rather silly advice on how to be successful in love."

"My father, in his callow youth, may have been steeped in the Castilian code of courtship. He had more Spanish blood in his veins than his son. But I am no such bungling operator in the arena of courtship. I'll have you know that I'm a real live nephew of your own Uncle Sam, because I judge from your telegram that you think I'm as sentimental and romantic as a Neapolitan street singer. My dear Mr. Latham, you know nothing of my charming niece's disposition. The finest way in the world for me to kill my feeble prospects would be for me to wangle a guitar under window and sing 'Sobre las Olas.' And anyhow, what's your interest in me that causes you to be so free with your foolish advice? I suspect you would like to get me in Dutch."

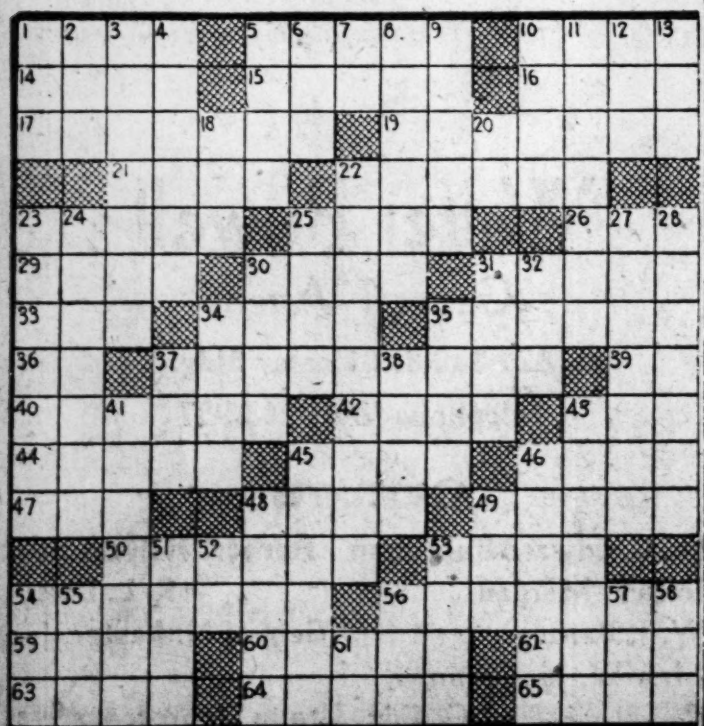

"I think she likes me, but she doesn't know whether I'm crazy about her or not, even when I swear I am. I figure that the best way to get her winging is to keep her guessing, but—quit snoring! If you have any other suggestions for helping along the game of your old friend Patricio Jesus Higuene's son, let them fly."

"Sincerely yours,
"J. M. HIGUENES."

DAY IN FINANCE

By
R. L. BARNUM

NEW YORK, July 25.—National Cash Register broke 5 points in the early trading on the statement of an official of the company late yesterday before sailing for Europe that the volume of business is down 25 per cent with earnings down 50 per cent and that the dividend on the A stock probably was not earned in the first half of the year. This explains the cut of 10 per cent in prices announced by the company yesterday. Most leading stocks opened slightly higher. Trading was extremely quiet.

Inasmuch as the stock prices for the past week were advancing with the exception of last Saturday and Sunday, the weekly decrease of $17,000,000 in brokers' loans just reported was not accepted by Wall Street as a bullish sign on the stock market. The decrease in brokers' loans in the face of advancing stock prices is understood to mean that the advance in prices was due to short covering which does not add to the technical strength of the stock market. This and the failure of the stock market to carry through to reaching the high average price of last Friday makes some good market judges believe that the best to be expected of the stock market in the immediate future is quiet trading and a narrow price movement to consolidate the gains made July 8. For the longer look ahead most Wall Street people expect higher stock prices.

Another shipment of $3,000,000 was engaged by the Wall Street private banking house of Lazard Freres to go to Paris tonight on the steamship France. All of the leading morning papers here had editorial on the gold movement from Paris and London to Paris. The situation generally reached was that gold is moving to France because it is now pays to ship it there. However, the consensus of editorial opinion was that in view of the expansion of note issue accompanying the inflow of gold and the advance in commodity prices contrary to the movement elsewhere, France has reason to be concerned over the outlook for trouble-making inflation. Unlike financial London, Wall Street is not criticizing France for taking gold.

Continued gold exports, which amounted to $22,000,000 for the past week not including today's shipment, are not made for higher money here, at least for most periods of time money topped 1.4 of 1 per cent today. On the stock exchange floor call money moved at 2 per cent but on the outside market it dropped to 1 per cent. Sales of copper for export are running larger than at any time since May when the price was first cut 14 cents a pound. Analysts believe that copper is not going below the present price of 11 cents and that the next price trend is upward.

New Haven reports June earnings at $1,220,000 against $1,100,000 a year ago with net at $22,000 against $2,500,000. For the 6 months gross of $60,548,000 and net of $67,388,000 and net of $1,902,000 with $14,164,000. New Haven earned $3.06 a share for its common stock the first half of the year against $3.78 for the first six months of 1929 which is considered a good showing considering the slowing down that has occurred in general trade.

The first 21 railroads to report June earnings show aggregate gross down 14.8 per cent and net down 26.7 per cent.

Willis-Overland reports net profits for the first half of 1936 at $151,000. This is equal to $1.08 a share on the 7 per cent cumulative preferred stock. For the first half of 1929 net profits were $4,155,000 equal to $1.20 a share for the common stock after allowing for the preferred dividend.

Stewart Warner declared a quarterly dividend of 50 cents. The quarterly dividend was 25 cents. Prior to that the annual rate was $3.50. For the first half of 1929 net profits were $4,155,000 equal to $1.20 a share for the common stock after allowing for the preferred dividend.

Slowing down by steel plants and the automobile industry have caused factory employment and pay rolls for June to drop below the usual seasonal decline to a new low level for 1936. The federal reserve board at Washington reports in its regular monthly bulletin. This is not news to those who keep in close touch with the general business situation and outlook. The automobile industry further curtailing production no improvement is expected. Next month the automobile industry will increase production. Orders are now being placed by automobile manufacturers for steel which indicated increased monthly production from August on.

From now crop moving and the funds thus raised used to buy raw and finished goods should bring about weekly increases in freight car loadings. This seasonal movement with slowly returning confidence would bring about a change in the industrial picture.

Evidence of returning confidence is found in today's statement by the R. C. A. Victor Company that proceeding on the belief that the industrial depression has run its course and that there is nothing wrong with business in the country, it will add 10,000 employees to its pay roll, bringing the total number of employees to August 1 up to 20,000. This company which is a merger of the Radio Corporation of America, Victor Talking Machine, General Electric and Westinghouse, expects to increase its daily output of radios to 9,000. President Shumaker, of the R. C. A. Victor, in announcing the increase in the number of employees, says "If the pessimists will go back to work they will realize that there is nothing fundamentally wrong with business of the country. People will spend more. We are going to proceed on that basis until we are convinced that we are wrong. It is not necessary to wait for prosperity to return in full force before preparing to take advantage of the restoration of normal conditions."

Gains have been shown in the average price of bonds in all but five of the past 23 market sessions. Wall Street believes that this clearly indicates a definite trend.

Party Pajamas Only New Fad In Paris Styles

BY RALPH HEINZEN.

United News Staff Correspondent.

PARIS, July 25.—(U)—A daring innovation—the trousered evening dress—was provided by one designer today as the feature of the winter openings that serve as a crystal in which it is possible to view the styles of tomorrow.

Chantal was the couturier who sponsored the sensational garment drawing its inspiration from the current vogue in beach costumes. He withheld the pajama-gown until the last moment and its appearance startled the fashion reporters and buyers thronging the salon.

The trousers were cut extremely full and were squared at the bottoms. They were attached to the waist by a false belt in striking colors.

Only when the mannequin walked did the trousers become noticeable as such, because of the fullness. The resemblance to beach dress was marked, however, inasmuch as the bifurcated portion differed in hue from the waist.

The trousers of one dress were of blue, of others almost and green, which contrasted with the low-cut metal cloth waists.

Long skirts, for example, will continue the vogue. From watching the mannequins in their swift parade it is possible to draw up the following table in regard to the skirt length:

For sport—To the calf.

For street—Covering the calf.

For formal afternoon—To the ankle.

For evening—To the slipper top or floor.

The waistline varies from normal to high, with lines distinctly feminine throughout.

Steel Hearing Takes a Recess

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, July 25.—

(U)—Hearing for an injunction to block the billion-dollar Youngstown Sheet and Tube-Bethlehem Steel merger was adjourned over the week-end today with the battle over legality of proxies voted in favor of the consolidation still to be decided.

The Cyrus S. Eaton forces, who are seeking the injunction, continued today to attack the legality of proxies for 325,000 shares. If the Eaton group is upheld in its contention that most of these shares allegedly were voted without authorization, the merger will be blocked.

Nathan A. Kaecher, Youngstown, was the first witness today. He testified that W. J. Morris, vice president in charge of Sheet and Tube finances, paid him $150 a share for 1,000 shares of stock and then paid him $2.50 a share for the right to vote proxies on 1,400 shares he retained. This was the first evidence introduced to show proxies were purchased.

Even after court adjourned, rumors, entirely unconfirmed, persisted here that a secret movement to discontinue the consolidation was under way. The rumors were denied by Bethlehem officials in New York yesterday.

Walker Revokes Ban On Coney Sitters

NEW YORK, July 25.—(U)—Coney Island Beach chair sitters sat on their own chairs today right under the noses of the police, who had absolutely nothing about it.

Orders now said to have been inspired by Mayor Walker, resulted in sudden cessation of the drive to enforce an ordinance prohibiting citizens from bringing chairs to the beach. Restriction of the ordinance resulted in wholesale summonses recently.

It all started when the beach chair concessionaire complained that too many people were bringing their own chairs to the beach, and threatened to sue the city for damages.

C. C. Reduces Rates

WASHINGTON, July 25.—(U)—Substantial reduction in freight rates on wheat and other grains moving through western territory were ordered today by the interstate commerce commission effective October 1.

The findings of the commission, stating a decrease of wheat, other grains and grain products, such as flour and meal, resulted from the commission's compliance with the Webb-Kenney resolution of congress which ordered products of agriculture affected by depression to be reduced as low as railroad rates as possible.

In addition the commission found that wheat, coarse grains, flour and meal should all be moved on a single rate, and in addition western railroads were ordered to adopt a new system of making such rates in western territory.

The order, besides reducing rates on wheat-growing states, also makes substantial reductions in flat rates for ports on both domestic and export shipments and substantially increases the commission's proposed rates from Missouri and Mississippi river markets to the south.

The commission said, however, that the changes also are made in rates from the Missouri river, Chicago and St. Louis to eastern and southern ports.

The changes are chiefly reductions in rates on wheat and other grains moving through western territory.

FORD BLUNDERINGLY AIDS REDS, PASTOR SAYS

Manufacturer Ignorantly Backs Communism, Is Detroit's Charge

DETROIT, Mich., July 25.—(AP)—A Detroit priest characterized Henry Ford as an unconscious cause of the spread of communism in testimony given here today before the congressional committee investigating communist activity in the United States.

The statement was made by the Rev. Father Charles E. Coughlin, pastor of the Shrine of the Little Flower, who was called before the committee because of his series of radio addresses on communism.

The congressional committee arrived in Detroit from New York today and opened its hearings in the federal building. It planned to take up communist activities in Michigan.

Representative Hamilton Fish, Jr., of New York, chairman of the committee, asked Father Coughlin for an explanation of his statement.

Father Coughlin said that Ford is "the greatest force in the movement to internationalize labor throughout the world."

"A year ago, on the eve of the automobile show in New York," the witness continued, "Mr. Ford issued a statement that was printed on the front page of every daily newspaper in the United States that he had 30,000 more workers at his plant in Detroit."

"As a result of that statement more than 30,000 men who were out of work, flooded to Detroit from Alabama, Mississippi, Tennessee, Texas and other southern states, and while the weather was hot and the jobs there were no jobs for them and the only redress they had was to have the fire hose turned on them to drive them away."

"Getting all those men here in that manner was not done on purpose, was it?" Chairman Fish asked.

"No, it was done through ignorance," Father Coughlin replied.

"Just as the peace ship was sent to Europe through ignorance," he added.

Father Coughlin added that Ford's money is helping the Soviet government in Russia and referred to the $13,000,000 contract Ford signed with Soviet representatives.

Lithuanian Leader Banished to Province

Former Premier and Dictator Augustinas Valdemaras Has Been Banished for One Year to Krottingen, a State-Owned Domain, or Large Estate

KOVNO, Lithuania, July 25.—(AP)—Former Premier and Dictator Augustinas Valdemaras has been banished for one year to Krottingen, a state-owned domain, or large estate. The Lithuanian government took this step because it considered the former chief of government a "danger to public order and safety."

His wife, a French-born woman, and his nephew accompanied him into exile. The nephew is the young man who was wounded at Kovno in May, 1920, by a bomb intended for the then premier.

The edict of expulsion from Kovno was signed by Colonel Teliavskis, the chief of the League of Covenants for the protection of the republic. Professor Valdemaras is banished for one year to Krottingen in consequence of his endangering public order and safety.

The former dictator and "enfant terrible" of the League of Covenants will be kept under close public supervision during his exile.

The government headed by Premier Jonas Tulevicius, it is understood, between interning Professor Valdemaras and arresting him for high treason. It finally decided on banishing him because it had come to the conclusion that he was "physically abnormal."

Color was lent to the claim of abnormality by the former dictator's insistence that he himself must sign the protocol of his banishment as "rightful premier and minister of foreign affairs."

Carswell Given Boost by Friends

An enthusiastic meeting of more than 30 leading citizens of counties representing every section of the state was held Friday morning in Atlanta headquarters of George H. Carswell, candidate for governor, during which optimistic reports of the secretary of state's campaign were made by speakers who emphasized that the gubernatorial campaign was assuming the proportions of "the field against Carswell."

Confidence in the outcome of the coming primary was the keynote of the gathering, which was presided over by Judge R. N. Harlan, of Louisville, campaign manager for Carswell, and attended by some of the most widely known leaders in the state. Mr. Carswell also was present.

Hubert Home Fund Continues To Mount

Contributions to rebuild the home of the Rev. G. J. Hubert, father of Dennis Hubert, negro college student for whose slaying seven white men have been indicted, continued to be sent in Friday to John A. Manger, treasurer of a committee of white citizens.

Among the subscribers were the Willing Workers, a Baptist organization of Cartersville; Fred T. Barnett, of the general hospital board of the Methodist Episcopal church, south; Mrs. Julia Collier Harris, 179 Fourteenth, N. E.; and W. H. Higgins.

Friday's contributors praised the good will feature of the fund, and expressed hope that the full amount necessary to rebuild the home will be raised.

Gene Young Sought For Firing Pistol

Gene Young went on a rampage Friday afternoon when he visited his dilapidated home at 580 West Peachtree street, and fired a pistol in his home three times and then dashed over to Spring and shot a round and a half of steel bullets in the general direction of Otis Stephens, of 336 Gibson street, S. E., according to police reports. None of them struck Stephens, who told police he had no idea why Young was shooting at him.

Young's arrest was ordered to answer charges of being drunk and disorderly, shooting at another and discharging firearms within the city limits.

RUSSIAN PULPWOOD IMPORTATION BARRED

Lowman Says Convict Labor Used in Soviet Forests

WASHINGTON, July 25.—(AP)—The treasury today prohibited importation of Russian pulpwood purchased by the International Paper Company on the ground that convict labor had entered into its production.

Assistant Secretary Lowman said evidence in the hands of the treasury was that convict labor had been used in the production of the pulpwood. The reports, he said, described the condition of the convicts and the shooting of three of them because they struck bread from one of the pulpwood ships.

The action was taken under a tariff bill provision which prohibits the entry of goods produced wholly or in part by convict labor. The customs service recently denied entry to the two shipments of Russian lumber, but Lowman admitted it after the government failed to show that the lumber had been produced by convict labor.

Four more ships bearing lumber are on the seas. If evidence that convict labor entered into its handling is secured they also will be denied the privilege of landing their cargoes.

Lowman said the International Paper Company had purchased large amounts of Russian pulpwood through the Amtorg Corporation, official Russian trading organization.

The treasury made public a section of one of the reports which urged the decision to bar the pulpwood. It said the vessels were loaded by convicts and political prisoners, who were marched down from their barracks to the steamer each day.

"The prisoners were poorly clothed, mainly in rags, evidently the clothing they had at the time of their arrest," the report said. "They used canvas on their hands and feet. The meals served to the prisoners consisted of black bread and warm water. Women were not employed in loading ships, but they were employed in unloading cargoes of pulpwood in the yard."

Three prisoners who were caught stealing bread from another steamer were immediately shot for their act without trial. The cargoes of pulpwood being loaded were destined for the United States.

Lowman said general orders had been given to customs collectors along the Atlantic seaboard to prevent the entry of pulpwood from Russia.

He said so far the reports on convict labor dealt only with pulpwood.

News Agent Is Held In Attack on Bride

With his 16-year-old bride of two months in a dangerous condition at Grady hospital, police Friday arrested a news agent, a railroad worker, on technical charges of stupor as a result of an attack he made on his young wife when he returned from work early Friday morning.

Three gashes, said to have been inflicted with a razor, were found on Mrs. Jones's throat and there were cuts about the cheeks and cheeks. Mrs. O. A. George, rooming house proprietor at 803 Washington street, where the Joneses lived, heard the

TARZAN AND THE LOST EMPIRE No. 12

Moving slowly along the rim, von Harben sought some foothold, however slight, where Nature had lowered her guard, but it was almost night when he discovered a narrow fissure in the granite wall. He could see that below him the cliffs rose in terraced battlements to within a thousand feet of where he stood, and if the narrow fissure extended to the next terrace below him, he had a chance.

By Edgar Rice Burroughs

What was that? Von Harben strained his ears to catch the faint suggestion of a sound that arose out of the shadowy abyss below—a faint, thin, sound that barely reached his ears, but he was sure that he could not be mistaken—the sound was the voice of men. And now from out of the valley came a roar that rumbled upward like distant thunder.
